BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Treaty with France relating to rights in Cameroons mandate. Preamble.

WHEREAS a Treaty between the United States of America and France, in regard to the rights of the two Governments and their respective nationals in that part of the former German Colony of the Cameroons over which a mandate was conferred upon France, was concluded and signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at Paris on the thirteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, the original of which Treaty, being in the French and English languages, is word for word as follows:

CONVENTION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND FRANCE RELATING TO THE PART OF THE CAMEROONS UNDER FRENCH MANDATE

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC, Rights renounced by Germany.

Whereas by Article 119 of the Treaty of Peace signed at Versailles the 28th of June, 1919, Germany renounced in favor of the Principal Allied and Associated Powers all her rights and titles over her oversea possessions; and Authority for mandate.

Whereas by Article 22 of the same instrument it was provided that certain territories which, as a result of the war, had ceased to be under the sovereignty of the States which formerly governed them, should be placed under the mandate of another Power, and that the terms of the mandate should be explicitly defined in each case by the Council of the League of Nations; and Benefits confirmed by Treaty with Germany.

CONVENTION ENTRE LA FRANCE ET LES ÉTATS-UNIS D'AMÉRIQUE CONCERNANT LA PARTIE DU CAMEROUN PLACÉE SOUS MANDAT FRANÇAIS

LE PRÉSIDENT DE LA RÉPUBLIQUE FRANÇAISE ET LE PRÉSIDENT DES ÉTATS-UNIS D'AMÉRIQUE,

Considérant que, par l'Article 119 du Traité de paix signé à Versailles le 28 juin 1919, l'Allemagne a renoncé en faveur des principales Puissances Alliées et Associées à tous ses droits et titres sur ses possessions d'outremer;

Considérant que, par l'Article 22 dudit Traité, il a été stipulé que certains territoires qui, à la suite de la guerre, ont cessé d'être sous la souveraineté des États qui les gouvernaient précédemment, seraient placés sous le mandat d'une autre Puissance et que les conditions du mandat seraient expressément définies dans chaque cas par le Conseil de la Société de Nations;

Considérant que le bénéfice dudit Article 119 du Traité de Versailles a été reconnu aux États-Unis par le Traité conclu entre les États-Unis et l'Alle-

States and Germany, signed August 25, 1921, to restore friendly relations between the two nations; and

Whereas four of the Principal Allied and Associated Powers, to wit: the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, agreed that France should exercise the mandate for part of the former German Colony of the Cameroons; and

Whereas the terms of the said mandate have been defined by the Council of the League of Nations as follows:

ARTICLE 1.—The territory for which a mandate is conferred upon France comprises that part of the Cameroons which lies to the east of the line laid down in the Declaration signed on July 10th, 1919, of which copy is annexed hereto.

This line may, however, be slightly modified by mutual agreement between His Britannic Majesty's Government and the Government of the French Republic where an examination of the localities shows that it is undesirable, either in the interest of the inhabitants or by reason of any inaccuracies in the map Moisel 1/300,000, annexed to the Declaration, to adhere strictly to the line laid down therein.

The delimitation on the spot of this line shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the said Declaration.

The final report of the Mixed Commission shall give the exact description of the boundary line as traced on the spot; maps signed by the Commissioners shall be annexed to the report. This report with its annexes shall be drawn up in triplicate; one of these shall be deposited in the archives of the League of Nations, one shall be kept by the Government of the Republic and one by His Britannic Majesty's Government.

ARTICLE 2.—The Mandatory shall be responsible for the peace, order and good government of the territory and for the promotion to the utmost of the material and moral well-being and the social progress of its inhabitants.

ARTICLE 3.—The Mandatory shall not establish in the territory any military or naval bases, nor erect any fortifications, nor organize any native military force except for local police purposes and for the defence of the territory.

It is understood, however, that the troops thus raised may, in the event of general war, be utilized to repel an Agreement to mandate of France.

Considérant que quatre des principales Puissances Alliées et Associées, savoir l'Empire britannique, la France, l'Italie et le Japon, ont convenu que la France exercerait le mandat sur une partie de l'ancienne colonie allemande du Cameroun;

Terms of mandate.

Considérant que les conditions de ce mandat ont été définies comme suit par le Conseil de la Société des Nations:

Post, p. 1784.

ARTICLE 1er.—Les territoires dont la France assume l'administration sous le régime du mandat comprennent la partie du Cameroun qui est située à l'est de la ligne fixée dans la Déclaration, signée le 10 juillet 1919, dont une copie est ci-annexée.

Cette ligne pourra, toutefois, être légèrement modifiée par accord intervenant entre le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté britannique et le Gouvernement de la République française, sur les points où, soit dans l'intérêt des habitants, soit par suite de l'inexactitude de la carte Moisel au 1/300.000 annexée à la Déclaration, l'examen des lieux ferait reconnaître comme indésirable de s'en tenir exactement à la ligne indiquée.

La délimitation sur le terrain de ces frontières sera effectuée conformément aux dispositions de ladite Déclaration.

Le rapport final de la Commission mixte donnera la description exacte de la frontière telle que celle-ci aura été déterminée sur le terrain; les cartes signées par les commissaires seront jointes au rapport. Ce document, avec ses annexes, sera établi en triple exemplaire; l'un des originaux sera déposé dans les archives de la Société des Nations, le deuxième sera conservé par le Gouvernement de la République et le troisième par le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté britannique.

ARTICLE 2.—Le Mandataire sera responsable de la paix, du bon ordre et de la bonne administration du territoire, accroîtra par tous les moyens en son pouvoir le bien-être matériel et moral et favorisera le progrès social des habitants.

ARTICLE 3.—Le Mandataire ne devra établir sur le territoire aucune base militaire ou navale, ni édifier aucune fortification, ni organiser aucune force militaire indigène sauf pour assurer la police locale et la défense du territoire.

Toutefois, il est entendu que les troupes ainsi levées peuvent, en cas de guerre générale, être utilisées pour re-attack or for defence of the territory outside that subject to the mandate.

ARTICLE 4.—The Mandatory:

1° Shall provide for the eventual emancipation of all slaves, and for as speedy an elimination of domestic and other slavery as social conditions will allow;

2° Shall suppress all forms of slave trade;

3° Shall prohibit all forms of forced or compulsory labor, except for essential public works and services, and then only in return for adequate remuneration;

4° Shall protect the natives from measures of fraud and force by the careful supervision of labor contracts and the recruiting of labor;

5° Shall exercise a strict control over the traffic in arms and ammunition and the sale of spirituous liquors.

ARTICLE 5.—In the framing of laws relating to the holding or transference of land, the Mandatory shall take into consideration native laws and customs, and shall respect the rights and safeguard the interests of the native population.

No native land may be transferred, except between natives, without the previous consent of the public authorities, and no real rights over native land in favor of non-natives may be created except with the same consent.

The Mandatory shall promulgate strict regulations against usury.

ARTICLE 6.—The Mandatory shall secure to all nationals of States Members of the League of Nations the same rights as are enjoyed in the territory by his own nationals in respect of entry into and residence in the territory, the protection afforded to their person and property, movable and immovable, and the exercise of their profession or trade, subject only to the requirements of public order, and on condition of compliance with the local law.

Further, the Mandatory shall ensure to all nationals of States Members of the League of Nations, on the same footing as his own nationals, freedom of transit and navigation, and complete economic, commercial and industrial equality; provided that the Mandatory shall be free to organize essential public works and services on such terms and conditions as he thinks just.

Concessions for the development of the natural resources of the territory shall be granted by the Mandatory without distinction on grounds of nationality between the nationals of all States Members of the League of Na-pousser une agression ou pour la défense du territoire en dehors de la région soumise au mandat.

ARTICLE 4.—La Puissance mandataire devra:

1° Pourvoir à l'émancipation éventuelle de tous esclaves et, dans un délai aussi court que les conditions sociales le permettront, faire disparaître tout esclavage domestique ou autre;

2° Supprimer toute forme de commerce d'esclaves;

3° Interdire tout travail forcé ou obligatoire, sauf pour les travaux et services publics essentiels et sous condition d'une équitable rémunération;

4° Protéger les indigènes contre la fraude et la contrainte, par une surveillance attentive des contrats de travail et du recrutement des travailleurs;

5° Exercer un contrôle sévère sur le trafic des armes et munitions, ainsi que sur le commerce des spiritueux.

ARTICLE 5.—La Puissance mandataire devra, dans l'établissement des règles relatives à la tenure du sol et au transfert de la propriété foncière, prendre en consideration les lois et les coutumes indigènes, respecter les droits et sauvegarder les intérêts des indigènes.

Aucune propriété foncière indigène ne pourra faire l'objet d'un transfert, excepté entre indigènes, sans avoir reçu au préalable l'approbation de l'autorité publique. Aucun droit réel ne pourra être constitué sur un bien foncier indigène en faveur d'un non-indigène, si ce n'est avec la même approbation.

La Puissance mandataire édictera des règles sévères contre l'usure.

ARTICLE 6.—La Puissance mandataire assurera à tous les ressortissants des États Membres de la Société des Nations les mêmes droits qu'à ses propres ressortissants, en ce qui concerne leur accès et leur établissement dans le territoire, la protection de leurs personnes et de leurs biens, l'acquisition des propriétés mobilières et immobilières, l'exercice de leur profession ou de leur industrie, sous réserve des nécessités d'ordre public et de l'observation de la législation locale.

La Puissance mandataire pratiquera, en outre, à l'égard de tous les ressortissants des États Membres de la Société des Nations et dans les mêmes conditions qu'à l'égard de ses propres ressortissants, la liberté du transit et de la navigation et une complète égalité économique, commerciale et industrielle, excepté pour les travaux et services publics essentiels, qu'elle reste libre d'organiser dans les termes et conditions qu'elle estime justes.

Les concessions pour le développement des resources naturelles du territoire seront accordées par le Mandataire sans distinction de nationalité entre les ressortissants des États Membres de la Société des Nations, mais de tions, but on such conditions as will maintain intact the authority of the local Government.

Concessions having the character of a general monopoly shall not be granted. This provision does not affect the right of the Mandatory to create monopolies of a purely fiscal character in the interest of the territory under mandate and in order to provide the territory with fiscal resources which seem best suited to the local requirements; or, in certain cases, to carry out the development of natural resources, either directly by the State or by a controlled agency, provided that there shall result therefrom no monopoly of the natural resources for the benefit of the Mandatory or his nationals, directly or indirectly, nor any preferential advantage which shall be inconsistent with the economic, commercial and industrial equality hereinbefore guaranteed.

The rights conferred by this article extend equally to companies and associations organized in accordance with the law of any of the Members of the League of Nations, subject only to the requirements of public order, and on condition of compliance with the local law.

ARTICLE 7.—The Mandatory shall ensure in the territory complete freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship which are consonant with public order and morality; missionaries who are nationals of States Members of the League of Nations shall be free to enter the territory and to travel and reside therein, to acquire and possess property, to erect religious buildings and to open schools throughout the territory; it being understood, however, that the Mandatory shall have the right to exercise such control as may be necessary for the maintenance of public order and good government, and to take all measures required for such control.

ARTICLE 8.—The Mandatory shall apply to the territory any general international conventions applicable to his contiguous territory.

ARTICLE 9.—The Mandatory shall have full powers of administration and legislation in the area subject of the mandate. This area shall be administered in accordance with the laws of the Mandatory as an integral part of his territory and subject to the above provisions.

The Mandatory shall therefore be at liberty to apply his laws to the territory subject to the mandate with such modifications as may be required by local conditions, and to constitute the territory into a customs, fiscal or administration to maintain intact the authority of the local Government.

Il ne sera pas accordé de concession ayant le caractère d'un monopole général. Cette clause ne fait pas obstacle au droit du Mandataire de créer des monopoles d'un caractère purement fiscal dans l'intérêt du territoire soumis au mandat et en vue de procurer au territoire les ressources fiscales paraissant le mieux s'adapter aux besoins locaux, ou, dans certains cas, de développer les ressources naturelles, soit directement par l'État, soit par un organisme soumis à son contrôle, sous cette réserve qu'il n'en résultera directement ou indirectement aucun monopole des ressources naturelles au bénéfice du Mandataire ou de ses ressortissants, ni aucun avantage préférentiel qui serait incompatible avec l'égalité économique, commerciale et industrielle ci-dessus garantie.

Les droits conférés par le présent article s'étendent également aux sociétés et associations organisées suivant les lois des États Membres de la Société des Nations, sous réserve seulement des nécessités d'ordre public et de l'observation de la législation locale.

ARTICLE 7.—La Puissance mandataire assurera, dans l'étendue du territoire, la pleine liberté de conscience et le libre exercice de tous les cultes, qui ne sont contraires ni à l'ordre public, ni aux bonnes mœurs; elle donnera à tous les missionnaires ressortissants de tout État Membre de la Société des Nations la faculté de pénétrer, de circuler et de résider dans le territoire, d'y acquérir et posséder des propriétés, d'y élever des bâtiments dans un but religieux et d'y ouvrir des écoles, étant entendu, toutefois, que le Mandataire aura le droit d'exercer tel contrôle qui pourra être nécessaire pour le maintien de l'ordre public et d'une bonne administration et de prendre à cet effet toutes mesures utiles.

ARTICLE 8.—La Puissance mandataire étendra aux territoires le bénéfice des conventions internationales générales, applicables à leurs territoires limitrophes.

ARTICLE 9.—La Puissance mandataire aura pleins pouvoirs d'administration et de législation sur les contrées faisant l'objet du mandat. Ces contrées seront administrées selon la législation de la Puissance mandataire comme partie intégrante de son territoire et sous réserve des dispositons qui précèdent.

La Puissance mandataire est, en conséquence, autorisée à appliquer aux régions soumises au mandat sa législation sous réserve des modifications exigées par les conditions locales et à constituer ces territoires en unions ou ministrative union or federation with the adjacent territories under his sovereignty or control; provided always that the measures adopted to that end do not infringe the provisions of this mandate.

ARTICLE 10.—The Mandatory shall make to the Council of the League of Nations an annual report to the satisfaction of the Council. This report shall contain full information concerning the measures taken to apply the provisions of this mandate.

ARTICLE 11.—The consent of the Council of the League of Nations is required for any modification of the terms of the present mandate.

ARTICLE 12.—The Mandatory agrees that, if any dispute whatever should arise between the Mandatory and another Member of the League of Nations relating to the interpretation or the application of the provisions of the mandate, such dispute, if it cannot be settled by negotiation, shall be submitted to the Permanent Court of International Justice provided for by Article 14 of the Covenant of the League of Nations.

ARTICLE 11.—Toute modification apportée aux termes du présent mandat devra être approuvée au préalable par le Conseil de la Société des Nations.

ARTICLE 12.—Le Mandataire accepte que tout différend, quel qu'il soit, qui viendrait à s'élever entre lui et un autre Membre de la Société des Nations, relatif à l'interprétation ou à l'application des dispositions du mandat et qui ne soit pas susceptible d'être réglé par des négociations, soit soumis à la Cour permanente de Justice internationale, prévue par l'Article 14 du Pacte de la Société des Nations.

Thence the frontier will be determined as follows:

Authority for mandate.

Whereas by Article 22 of the same instrument it was provided that certain territories, which as a result of the war had ceased to be under the sovereignty of the States which formerly governed them, should be placed under the mandate of another Power, and that the terms of the mandate should be explicitely defined in each case by the Council of the League of Nations; and Benefits confirmed by Treaty between United States and Germany. Vol. 42, p. 1939.

Whereas the benefits accruing under the aforesaid Article 119 of the Treaty of Versailles were confirmed to the United States by the Treaty between the United States and Germany, signed Au-

CONVENTION ENTRE LA FRANCE ET LES ÉTATS-UNIS D'AMÉRIQUE CONCERNANT LA PARTIE DU TOGO PLACÉE SOUS MANDAT FRANÇAIS

LE PRÉSIDENT DE LA RÉPUBLIQUE FRANÇAISE ET LE PRÉSIDENT DES ÉTATS-UNIS D'AMÉRIQUE,

Considérant que, par l'Article 119 du Traité de paix signé à Versailles le 28 juin 1919, l'Allemagne a renoncé en faveur des principales Puissances Alliées et Associées à tous ses droits et titres sur ses possessions d'outremer;

Considérant que, par l'Article 22 dudit Traité, il a été stipulé que certains territoires qui, à la suite de la guerre, ont cessé d'être sous la souveraineté des États qui les gouvernaient précédemment, seraient placés sous le mandat d'une autre Puissance et que les conditions du mandat seraient expressément définies dans chaque cas par le Conseil de la Société de Nations;

Considérant que le bénéfice dudit Article 119 du Traité de Versailles a été reconnu aux États-Unis par le Traité conclu entre les États-Unis et l'Allemagne, le 25 août 1921, pour gust 25, 1921, to restore friendly relations between the two nations; and

Whereas four of the Principal Allied and Associated Powers, to wit: the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, agreed that France should exercise the mandate for part of the former German Colony of Togoland; and

Whereas the terms of the said mandate have been defined by the Council of the League of Nations as follows:

ARTICLE 1.—The territory over which a mandate is conferred upon France comprises that part of Togoland which lies to the east of the line laid down in the Declaration signed on July 10, 1919, of which a copy is annexed hereto.

This line may, however, be slightly modified by mutual agreement between His Britannic Majesty's Government and the Government of the French Republic where an examination of the localities shows that it is undesirable, either in the interests of the inhabitants or by reason of any inaccuracies in the map, Sprigade 1 : 200,000, annexed to the Declaration, to adhere strictly to the line laid down therein.

The delimitation on the spot of this line shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the said Declaration.

The final report of the Mixed Commission shall give the exact description of the boundary line as traced on the spot; maps signed by the Commissioners shall be annexed to the report. This report with its annexes shall be drawn up in triplicate: one of these shall be deposited in the archives of the League of Nations, one shall be kept by the Government of the Republic and one by His Britannic Majesty's Govenment.

ARTICLE 2.—The Mandatory shall be responsible for the peace, order and good government of the territory and for the promotion to the utmost of the material and moral well-being and the social progress of its inhabitants.

ARTICLE 3.—The Mandatory shall not establish in the territory any military or naval bases, nor erect any fortifications, nor organize any native military force except for local police purposes and for the defence of the territory.

It is understood, however, that the troops thus raised may, in the event of general war, be utilized to repel an attack or for the defence of the territory outside that subject to the mandate.

rétablir les relations amicales entre les deux nations;

Considérant que quatre des principales Puissances Alliées et Associées, savoir l'Empire britannique, la France, l'Italie et le Japon, ont convenu que la France exercerait le mandat sur une partie de l'ancienne colonie allemande du Togo; Agreement to mandate of France.

Considérant que les conditions de ce mandat ont été définies comme suit par le Conseil de la Société des Nations; Terms of mandate.

ARTICLE 1 er.—Les territoires dont la France assume l'administration sous le régime du mandat comprennent la pastie du Togo qui est située à l'est de la ligne fixée dans la Déclaration, signée le 10 juillet 1919, dont une copie est ci-annexée. Post, p. 1796.

Cette ligne pourra toutefois être légèrement modifiée par accord intervenant entre le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté britannique et le Gouvernement de la République française, sur les points où, soit dans l'intérêt des habitants, soit par suite de l'inexactitude de la carte Sprigade au 1 : 200,000, annexée à la Déclaration, l'examen des lieux ferait reconnaître comme indésirable de s'en tenir exactement à la ligne indiquée.

La délimitation sur le terrain de ces frontières sera effectuée conformément aux dispositions de la dite Déclaration.

Le rapport final de la commission mixte donnera la description exacte de la frontière telle que celle-ci aura été déterminée sur le terrain; les cartes signées par les commissaires seront jointes au rapport. Ce document, avec ses annexes, sera établi en triple exemplaire; l'un des originaux sera déposé dans les archives de la Société des Nations, le deuxième sera conservé par le Gouvernement de la République et le troisième par le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté britannique.

ARTICLE 2.—Le Mandataire sera responsable de la paix, du bon ordre et de la bonne administration du territoire, accroîtra par tous les moyens en son pouvoir le bien-être matériel et moral et favorisera le progrès social des habitants.

ARTICLE 3.—Le Mandataire ne devra établir sur le territoire aucune base militaire ou navale, ni édifier aucune fortification, ni organiser aucune force militaire indigène sauf pour assurer la police locale et la défense du territoire.

Toutefois, il est entendu que les troupes ainsi levées peuvent, en cas de guerre générale, être utilisées pour repousser une agression ou pour la défense du territoire en dehors de la région soumise au mandat.

Concessions for the development of the natural resources of the territory shall be granted by the Mandatory without distinction on grounds of Nationality betwen the nationals of all States Members of the League of Nations, but on such conditions as will maintain intact the authority of the local Government.

ARTICLE 4.—La Puissance mandataire devra:

1° Pourvoir à l'émancipation éventuelle de tous esclaves et, dans un délai aussi court que les conditions sociales le permettront, faire disparaître tout esclavage domestique ou autre;

2° Supprimer toute forme de commerce d'esclaves;

3° Interdire tout travail forcé ou obligatoire, sauf pour les travaux et services publics essentiels et sous condition d'une équitable rémunération;

4° Protéger les indigènes contre la fraude et la contrainte, par une surveillance attentive des contrats de travail et du recrutement des travailleurs;

5° Exercer un contrôle sévère sur le trafic des armes et munitions, ainsi que sur le commerce des spiritueux.

ARTICLE 5.—La puissance mandataire devra, dans l'établissement des règles relatives à la tenure du sol et au transfert de la propriété foncière, prendre en considération les lois et les coutumes indigènes, respecter les droits et sauvegarder les intérêts des indigènes.

Aucune propriété foncière indigène ne pourra faire l'objet d'un transfert, excepté entre indigènes, sans avoir reçu au préalable l'approbation de l'autorité publique. Acun droit réel ne pourra être constitué sur un bien foncier indigène en faveur d'un non-indigène, si ce n'est avec la même approbation.

La Puissance mandataire édictera des règles sévères contre l'usure.

ARTICLE 6.—La puissance mandataire assurera à tous les ressortissants des États membres de la Société des Nations les mêmes droits qu'à ses propres ressortissants, en ce qui concerne leur accès et leur établissement dans le territoire, la protection de leurs personnes et de leurs biens, l'acquisition des propriétés mobilières et immobilières, l'exercice de leur profession ou leur industrie, sous réserve des nécessités d'ordre public et de l'observation de la législation locale.

La Puissance mandataire pratiquera en outre, à l'égard de tous les ressortissants des États Membres de la Société des Nations et dans les mêmes conditions qu'à l'égard de ses propres ressortissants, la liberté du transit et de la navigation et une complète égalité économique, commerciale et industrielle, excepté pour les travaux et services publics essentials, qu'elle reste libre d'organiser dans les termes et conditions qu'elle estime justes.

Les concessions pour le développement des ressources naturelles du territoire seront accordées par le Mandataire, sans distinction de nationalité entre les ressortissants des États Membres de la Société des Nations, mais de manière à maintenir intacts l'autorité du Gouvernement local.

Concessions having the character of a general monopoly shall not be granted. This provision does not affect the right of the Mandatory to create monopolies of a purely fiscal character in the interest of the territory under mandate and in order to provide the territory with fiscal resources which seem best suited to the local requirements; or, in certain cases, to carry out the development of natural resources, either directly by the State or by a controlled agency, provided that there shall result therefrom no monopoly of the natural resources for the benefit of the Mandatory or his nationals, directly or indirectly, nor any preferential advantage which shall be inconsistent with the economic, commercial and industrial equality hereinbefore guaranteed.

The rights conferred by this article extend equally to companies and associations organized in accordance with the law of any of the Members of the League of Nations, subject only to the requirements of public order, and on condition of compliance with the local law.

ARTICLE 7.—The Mandatory shall ensure in the territory complete freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship which are consonant with public order and morality; missionaries who are nationals of States Members of the League of Nations shall be free to enter the territory and to travel and reside therein, to acquire and possess property, to erect religious buildings and to open schools throughout the territory; it being understood, however, that the Mandatory shall have the right to exercise such control as may be necesary for the maintenance of public order and good government, and to take all measures required for such control.

ARTICLE 8.—The Mandatory shall apply to the territory any general international conventions applicable to his contiguous territory.

ARTICLE 9. The Mandatory shall have full powers of administration and legislation in the area subject to the mandate. This area shall be administered in accordance with the laws of the Mandatory as an integral part of his territory and subject to the above provisions.

The Mandatory snall therefore be at liberty to apply his laws to the territory subject to the mandate, with such modifications as may be required by local conditions, and to constitute the territory into a customs, fiscal, or administrative union or federation with the adjacent territories under his sovereignty or control, provided always that the measures adopted to that end do not infringe the provisions of this mandate.

Il ne sera pas accordé de concession ayant le caractère d'un monopole général. Cette clause ne fait pas obstacle au droit du Mandataire de créer des monopoles d'un caractère purement fiscal dans l'intérêt du territoire soumis au mandat et en vue de procurer au territoire les ressources fiscales paraissant le mieux s'adapter aux besoins locaux, ou, dans certains cas, de développer des ressources naturelles, soit directement par l'État, soit par un organisme soumis à son contrôle, sous cette réserve qu'il n'en résultera directement ou indirectement aucun monopole des ressources naturelles au bénéfice de Mandataire ou de ses ressortissants, ni aucun avantage préférentiel qui serait incompatible avec l'égalité économique, commerciale et industrielle ci-dessus garantie.

Les droits conférés par le présent article s'étendent également aux sociétés et associations organisées suivant les lois des États Membres de la Société des Nations, sous réserve seulement des nécessités d'ordre public et de l'observation de la législation locale.

ARTICLE 7.—La Puissance mandataire assurera, dans l'étendue du territoire, la pleine liberté de conscience et le libre exercice de tous les cultes, qui ne sont contraires ni à l'ordre public, ni aux bonnes mœurs; elle donnera à tous les missionnaires ressortissants de tout État Membre de la Société des Nations la faculté de pénétrer, de circuler et de résider dans le territoire, d'y acquérir et posséder des propriétés, d'y élever des bâtiments dans un but religieux et d'y ouvrir des écoles, étant entendu, toutefois, que le Mandataire aura le droit d'exercer tel contrôle qui pourra être nécessaire pour le maintien de l'ordre public et d'une bonne administration et de prendre à cet effet toutes mesures utiles.

ARTICLE 8.—La Puissance mandataire étendra aux territoires le bénéfice des conventions internationales générales, applicables à ses territoires limitrophes.

ARTICLE 9.—La Puissance mandataire aura pleins pouvoirs d'administration et de législation sur les contrées faisant l'objet du mandat. Ces contrées seront administrées selon la législation de la Puissance mandataire comme partie intégrante de son territoire et sous réserve des dispositions qui précèdent.

La Puissance mandataire est, en conséquence, autorisée à appliquer aux régions soumises au mandat sa législation, sous réserve des modifications exigées par les conditions locales, et à constituer ces territoires en unions ou fédérations douanières, fiscales ou administratives avec les territoires avoisinants, relevant de sa propre souveraineté ou placés sous son contrôle, à condition que les mesures adoptées à ces fins ne portent pas atteinte aux dispositions du présent mandat.

Mandate—Contd.

ARTICLE 10.—The Mandatory shall make to the Council of the League of Nations an annual report to the satisfaction of the Council. This report shall contain full information concerning the measures taken to apply the provisions of this mandate.

ARTICLE 11.—The consent of the Council of the League of Nations is required for any modification of the terms of the present mandate.

ARTICLE 12.—The Mandatory agrees that, if any dispute whatever should arise between the Mandatory and another Member of the League of Nations relating to the interpretation or the application of the provisions of the mandate, such dispute, if it cannot be settled by negotiation, shall be submitted to the Permanent Court of International Justice provided for by Article 14 of the Convenant of the League of Nations,

ARTICLE 10.—La Puissance mandataire, présentera au Conseil de la Société des Nations un rapport annuel répondant à ses vues. Ce rapport devra contenir tous renseignements sur les mesures prises en vue d'appliquer les dispositions du présent mandat.

ARTICLE 11.—Toute modification apportée aux termes du présent mandat devra être approuvée au préalable par le Conseil de la Société des Nations.

ARTICLE 12.—Le Mandataire accepte que tout différend, quel qu'il soit, qui viendrait à s'élever entre lui et un autre Membre de la Société des Nations, relatif à l'interprétation ou à l'application des dispositions du mandat et qui ne soit pas susceptible d'être réglé par des négociations, soit soumis à la Cour permanente de Justice internationale, prévue par l'Article 14 du Pacte de la Société des Nations.

1° Il est entendu qu'au moment de la détermination sur le terrain de la frontière, lorsque l'indication des lignes naturelles à suivre ne sera pas mentionnée dans la présente description, les commissaires des deux gouvernements possible, but without changing the attribution of the villages named in Article 1, lay down the frontier in accordance with natural features (rivers, hills, or watersheds).

The Boundary Commissioners shall be authorized to make such minor modifications of the frontier line as may appear to them necessary in order to avoid separating villages from their agricultural lands. Such deviations shall be clearly marked on special maps and submitted for the approval of the two Governments. Pending such approval, the deviations shall be provisionally recognized and respected.

2° As regards the roads mentioned in Article 1, only those which are shown upon the annexed map (1) shall be taken into consideration in the delimitation of the frontier.

3° Where the frontier follows a waterway, the median line of the waterway shall be the boundary.

4° It is understood that if the inhabitants, living near the frontier should, within a period of six months from the completion of the local delimitation, express the intention to settle in the regions placed under French authority, or, inversely, in the regions placed under British authority, no obstacle will be placed in the way of their so doing, and they shall be granted the necessary time to gather in standing crops, and generally to remove all the property of which they are the legitimate owners.

ARTICLE 3.

1° The map to which reference is made in the description of the frontier is Sprigade's map of Togoland on the scale 1/200,000, of which the following sheets have been used:

Sheet A 1. Sansane-Mangu: date of completion, July 1st, 1907;

Sheet B 1. Jendi: date of completion, October 1st, 1907;

Sheet C 1. Bismarckburg: date of completion, December 1st, 1906;

Sheet D 1. Kete-Kratschi: date of completion, December 1st, 1905;

Sheet E 1. Misahöhe: date of completion, June 1st, 1905;

Sheet E 2. Lome: date of completion, October 1st, 1902.

devront s'attacher, autant que possible, à déterminer le tracé par des accidents naturels de terrain (cours d'eau, ligne de faîte ou crêtes). Ils ne sauraient changer, toutefois, l'attribution des villages mentionnés à l'Article 1.

Les commissaires chargés de l'abornement seront, d'autre part, autorisés à apporter au tracé de la frontière les modifications légères qui apparaîtraient nécessaires en vue d'éviter de séparer les villages de leurs terrains de culture; ces déviations devront être indiquées clairement sur des cartes spéciales et soumises à l'approbation dex deux gouvernements intéressés. Toutefois, en attendant qu'elles soient approuvées, elles seront provisoirement valables et par suite respectées.

2° En ce qui concerne les routes désignées à l'Article 1, les seules qui puissent être prises en considération pour l'établissement de la frontière sont celles indiquées sur la carte ci-jointe(1).

3° Quand la ligne frontière suit un cours d'eau, c'est la ligne médiane qui forme la limite.

4° Il est entendu que, si les habitants fixés près de la frontière exprimaient, dans un délai de six mois à partir de l'achèvement des opérations d'abornement sur place, l'intention de s'établir dans les régions placées sous l'autorité française, ou inversement dans les régions placées sous l'autorité britannique, aucun empêchement ne serait apporté à réalisation de ce désir, et il leur serait accordé le délai nécessaire pour enlever les récoltes sur pied, et, d'une façon générale, pour emporter tous les biens dont ils sont les propriétaires légitimes.

ARTICLE 3.

1° La carte qui a servi pour décrire la frontière est la carte Sprigade au 1/200.000e, savoir:

Feuille A 1. Sansané-Mangu: éditée le 1er juillet 1907;

Feuille B 1. Jendi: éditée le 1er octobre 1907;

PROTOCOL

ARTICLE I

Regulations governing the renewal and transfer of licenses, and the imposition of fines and other penalties for any misuse of licenses, may be made by either of the High Contracting Parties whenever advisable, within the terms of the present Convention, and without prejudice to the rights defined therein.

ARTICULO I

Siempre que una de las Altas Partes Contratantes lo juzgue conveniente, podrá reglamentar la renovación y el traspaso de licencias y la imposición de multas y otras penas por cualquier uso ilegal de las mismas, de Issuance of governing regulations.

Renewal of licenses.

If such regulations should permit the renewal of licenses, the corresponding fee will not be greater than that charged for the original license.

Conditions permitting transfer of licenses.

If such regulations should permit the transfer of licenses, upon satisfactory proof that transferee or assignee is in every sense the true successor of the original licensee, and can furnish a certificate of identication similar to that furnished by the said original licensee, he will be allowed to operate as a commercial traveler pending the arrival of the new certificate of identification, but the cancellation of the bond for the samples shall not be effected before the arrival of the said certificate.

ARTICLE II

Citizenship of firm to govern identification certificate.

It is the citizenship of the firm that the commercial traveler represents, and not his own, that governs the issuance to him of a certificate of identification.

Authority of local customs officials to issue licenses, etc.

In order to obtain practical results, the High Contracting Parties agree to empower the local customs officials to issue the said licenses upon surrender of the certificate of identification and authenticated list of samples, acting as deputies of the central office constituted for the issuance and regulation of licenses. The said customs officials shall immediately transmit the appropriate documentation to the said central office, to which the licensee shall thereafter give due notice of his intention to ask for the renewal or transfer of his license, if these acts be allowable, or cancellation of his bond, upon his departure from the country. Due notice in this connection will be regarded as the time required for the exchange of correspondence in the normal mail schedules, plus five business days for purposes of official verification and registration.

acuerdo con lo estipulado en la presente Convención, y sin perjuicio de los derechos en ella especificados.

En caso de que se autorice la renovación de licencias, no se cobrará por este servicio una suma mayor que la exigida por la expedición de la licencia original.

En caso de que se autorice el traspaso de licencias, el cesionario, previa prueba suficiente de que es por todos conceptos el verdadero sucesor del cedente, y de que pueda presentar un certificado de identidad semejante al presentado por el que obtuvo la licencia original, podrá actuar como agente viajero hasta que se reciba el nuevo certificado de identidad, no efectuándose, sin embargo, la cancelación de la fianza, mientras no haya llegado este documento.

ARTICULO II

La nacionalidad de la casa representada, y no del agente viajero que la representa, será la que rija para la expedición del certificado de identidad.

A fin de obtener resultados prácticos, las Altas Partes Contratantes convienen en facultar a las autoridades aduaneras locales para expedir las licencias citadas, previa entrega del certificado de identidad y de la lista certificada de muestras, en representación de la oficina central encargada de expedir y reglamentar las licencias. Las citadas autoridades remitirán a dicha oficina central, sin pérdida de tiempo, los documentos correspondientes, debiendo notificar a ésta el cesionario, después de hecha la remisión, su propósito de pedir la renovación o el traspaso de su licencia, en caso de permitirse estos actos, o la cancelación de su fianza al salir del país. Se tendrá por oportuna la notificación hecha en el plazo necesario para un cambio de correspondencia en condiciones normales, más cinco días hábiles para la comprobación y el registro por las autoridades competentes

ARTICLE III

It is understood that the traveler will not engage in the sale of other articles than those embraced by his lines of business; that is to say, he may sell his samples, thus incurring an obligation to pay the customs duties thereupon, but he may not sell other articles brought with him or sent to him, which are not reasonably and clearly representative of the kind of business he purports to represent.

Sales of samples restricted to business represented by commercial traveler.

ARTICULO III

Se entiende que el agente viajero no se dedicará a la venta de otros artículos que los comprendidos en el ramo a que se dedica; es decir, podrá vender sus muestras, con la obligación correspondiente de cubrir los derechos aduaneros reglamentarios; pero no podrá vender otros artículos que lleve consigo o que reciba, si no pertenecen, de una manera razonable y clara, al ramo a que está dedicado.

ARTICLE IV

Advertising matter brought by commercial travelers in appropriate quantities shall be treated as samples without commercial value. Objects having a depreciated commercial value because of adaptation for purposes of advertisement, and intended for gratuitous distribution, shall, when introduced in reasonable quantities, also be treated as samples without commercial value. It is understood, however, that this prescription shall be subject to the customs laws of the respective countries.

Advertising matter admitted equally as samples.

ARTICULO IV

Se considerarán como muestras sin valor comercial los anuncios que el agente viajero lleve consigo, siempre que sean en cantidades apropiadas, teniéndose también como muestras sin valor comercial los objetos que tengan un valor mercantil depreciado, debido a su adaptación para fines de anuncios y destinados a distribución gratuíta, siempre que se introduzcan en cantidades razonables. Se entiende, sin embargo, que esta prescripción estará sujeta al reglamento aduanero del país respectivo.

ARTICLE V

If the original license were issued for a period longer than six months, or if the license be renewed, the bond for the samples will be correspondingly extended. It is understood, however, that this prescription shall be subject to the customs laws of the respective countries.

Extension of bonds for samples.

ARTICULO V

Cuando la licencia original se expidiere por un período mayor de seis meses, o cuando fuere renovada, se extenderá la fianza en la proporción correspondiente. Se entiende, sin embargo, que esta prescripción estará sujeta al reglamento aduanero del país respectivo.

ARTICLE VI

Samples accompanying the commercial traveler will be despatched as a portion of his personal baggage; and those arriving after him will be given precedence over ordinary freight.

In witness whereof, they have signed and sealed this Protocol in

(1) The President of the German Empire agrees that Germany will raise no objection to the boarding of private vessels under the German flag outside the limits of territorial waters by the authorities of the United States, its territories or possessions, in order that enquiries may be addressed to those on board and an examination be made of the ship's papers for the purpose of ascertaining whether the vessel or those on board are endeavoring to import or have imported alcoholic beverages into the United States, its territories or possessions in violation of the laws there in force. When such enquiries and examination show a reasonable ground for suspicion, a search of the vessel may be initiated.

(1) Der Deutsche Reichspraesident erklaert sich damit einverstanden, dass Deutschland keinen Einspruch dagegen erheben wird, dass Beamte der Vereinigten Staaten, ihrer Territorien und Besitzungen ausserhalb der Grenzen der Hoheitsgewaesser an Bord privater Schiffe unter deutscher Flagge gehen, um die an Bord befindlichen Personen daraufhin zu befragen und die Schiffspapiere daraufhin zu pruefen, ob das Fahrzeug oder die an Bord befindlichen Personen alkoholische Getraenke in die Vereinigten Staaten, ihrer Territorien oder Besitzungen unter Verletzung der dort gueltigen Gesetze einfuehren wollen oder eingefuehrt haben. Convention between the United States and France relating to rights in Syria and The Lebanon. April 4, 1924.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Convention with France relating to rights in Syria and the Lebanon mandate

Preamble.

WHEREAS a Convention between the United States of America and the French Republic respecting the rights of the two governments and their respective nationals in Syria and the Lebanon, over which a mandate was conferred upon the Government of France was concluded and signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at Paris on the fourth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, the original of which Convention, being in the French and English languages, is word for word as follows:

CONVENTION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND FRANCE REGARDING THE MANDATE FOR SYRIA AND THE LEBANON

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC,

CONVENTION ENTRE LES ÉTATS-UNIS D'AMÉRIQUE ET LA FRANCE CONCERNANT LE MANDAT POUR LA SYRIE ET LE LIBAN

LE PRÉSIDENT DES ÉTATS-UNIS D'AMÉRIQUE ET LE PRÉSIDENT DE LA RÉPUBLIQUE FRANÇAISE, Rights renounced by Turkey.

Whereas by the Treaty of Peace concluded with the Allied Powers, Turkey renounces all her rights and titles over Syria and the Lebanon, and,

Considérant que par le Traité de Paix conclu avec les Puissances Alliées la Turquie renonce à tous ses droits et titres sur la Syrie et le Liban;

Authority for mandate.

Whereas Article 22 of the Covenant of the League of Nations in the Treaty of Versailles provides that in the case of certain territories which as a consequence of the late war ceased to be under the sovereignty of the states which formerly governed them, mandates should be issued and that the terms of the mandate should be explicitly defined in each case by the Council of the League, and,

Considérant que l'article 22 du Pacte de la Société des Nations inséré dans le Traité de Versailles a stipulé que des mandats seraient établis pour certains territoires qui, comme conséquence de la dernière guerre, ont cessé d'être sous la souveraineté des États qui les gouvernaient précédemment, et que les termes de ces mandats seraient expressément définis, dans chaque cas, par le Conseil de la Société des Nations;

Agreement to mandate of France.

Whereas the Principal Allied Powers have agreed to entrust the mandate for Syria and the Lebanon to France, and,

Considérant que les principales Puissances Alliés ont convenu de confier à la France le mandat pour la Syrie et le Liban;

Terms of mandate.

Whereas the terms of the said mandate have been defined by the Council of the League of Nations as follows:

ARTICLE 1.—The Mandatory shall frame, within a period of three years from the coming into force of this mandate, an organic law for Syria and the Lebanon.

This organic law shall be framed in agreement with the native authorities and shall take into account the rights, interests, and wishes of all the population inhabiting the said territory. The Mandatory shall further enact measures to facilitate the progressive development of Syria and the Lebanon as independent States. Pending the coming into effect of the organic law, the government of Syria and the Lebanon shall be conducted in accordance with the spirit of this mandate.

The Mandatory shall, as far as circumstances permit, encourage local autonomy.

ARTICLE 2.—The Mandatory may maintain its troops in the said territory for its defence. It shall further be empowered, until the entry into force of the organic law and the re-establishment of public security, to organise such local militia as may be necessary for the defence of the territory, and to employ this militia for defence and also for the maintenance of order. These local forces may only be recruited from the inhabitants of the said territory.

The said militia shall thereafter be under the local authorities, subject to the authority and the control which the Mandatory shall retain over these forces. It shall not be used for purposes other than those above specified save with the consent of the Mandatory.

Nothing shall preclude Syria and the Lebanon from contributing to the cost of the maintenance of the forces of the Mandatory stationed in the territory.

The Mandatory shall at all times possess the right to make use of the ports, railways and means of communication of Syria and the Lebanon for the passage of its troops and of all materials, supplies and fuel.

ARTICLE 3.—The Mandatory shall be entrusted with the exclusive control of the foreign relations of Syria and the Lebanon and with the right to issue exequaturs to the consuls appointed by foreign Powers. Nationals of Syria and the Lebanon living outside the limits of the territory shall be under the diplomatic and consular protection of the Mandatory.

ARTICLE 4.—The Mandatory shall be responsible for seeing that no part of the territory of Syria and the Lebanon is ceded or leased or in any way placed under the control of a foreign Power.

Considérant que les termes de ce mandat ont été définis comme suit par le Conseil de la Société des Nations:

ARTICLE PREMIER.—Le Mandataire élaborera, dans un délai de trois ans à dater de l'entrée en application du présent mandat, un statut organique pour la Syrie et le Liban.

Ce statut organique sera préparé d'accord avec les autorités indigènes et tiendra compte des droits, intérêts et vœux de toutes les populations habitant lesdits territoires. Il édictera les mesures propres à faciliter le développement progressif de la Syrie et du Liban comme États indépendants. En attendant la mise en vigueur du statut organique, l'administration de la Syrie et du Liban sera conduite en accord avec l'esprit du présent mandat.

Le Mandataire favorisera les autonomies locales dans toute la mesure où les circonstances s'y prêteront.

ARTICLE 2.—Le Mandataire pourra maintenir ses troupes dans lesdits territoires en vue de leur défense. Il pourra, jusqu'à la mise en vigueur du statut organique et du rétablissement de la sécurité publique, organiser les milices locales nécessaires à la défense de ces territoires et les employer à cette défense ainsi qu'au maintien de l'ordre. Ces forces locales ne seront recrutées que parmi les habitants desdits territoires.

Lesdites milices relèveront ensuite des pouvoirs locaux sous réserve de l'autorité et du contrôle que le Mandataire devra conserver sur ces forces. Elles ne pourront être utilisées à d'autres fins que celles énoncées ci-dessus, à moins que le Mandataire ne l'autorise.

Rien n'empêchera la Syrie et le Liban de participer aux frais d'entretien des forces du Mandataire stationnées sur le territoire.

Le Mandataire disposera en tout temps du droit d'utiliser les ports, voies ferrées et moyens de communication de la Syrie et du Liban pour le passage de ses troupes et de tous matériel, approvisionnements et combustibles.

ARTICLE 3.—Les relations extérieures de la Syrie et du Liban, ainsi que la délivrance des exequatur aux consuls des Puissances étrangères, seront du ressort exclusif du Mandataire. Les ressortissants de la Syrie et du Liban se trouvant hors des limites de ces territoires relèveront de la protection diplomatique et consulaire du Mandataire.

ARTICLE 4.—Le Mandataire garantit la Syrie et le Liban contre toute perte ou prise à bail de tout ou partie des territoires et contre l'établissement de tout contrôle d'une Puissance étrangère.

Mandate—Contd.

ARTICLE 5.—The privileges and immunities of foreigners, including the benefits of consular jurisdiction and protection as formerly enjoyed by Capitulation or usage in the Ottoman Empire, shall not be applicable in Syria and the Lebanon. Foreign consular tribunals shall, however, continue to perform their duties until the coming into force of the new legal organisation provided for in Article 6.

Unless the Powers whose nationals enjoyed the afore-mentioned privileges and immunities on August 1st, 1914, shall have previously renounced the right to their re-establishment, or shall have agreed to their non-application during a specified period, these privileges and immunities shall at the expiration of the mandate be immediately re-established in their entirety or with such modifications as may have been agreed upon between the Powers concerned.

ARTICLE 6.—The Mandatory shall establish in Syria and the Lebanon a judicial system which shall assure to natives as well as to foreigners a complete guarantee of their rights.

Respect for the personal status of the various peoples and for their religious interests shall be fully guaranteed. In particular, the control and administration of Wakfs shall be exercised in complete accordance with religious law and the dispositions of the founders.

ARTICLE 7.—Pending the conclusion of special extradition agreements, the extradition treaties at present in force between foreign Powers and the Mandatory shall apply within the territory of Syria and the Lebanon.

ARTICLE 8.—The Mandatory shall ensure to all complete freedom of conscience and the free exercise of all forms of worship which are consonant with public order and morality. No discrimination of any kind shall be made between the inhabitants of Syria and the Lebanon on the ground of differences in race, religion or language.

The Mandatory shall encourage public instruction, which shall be given through the medium of the native languages in use in the territory of Syria and the Lebanon.

The right of each community to maintain its own schools for the instruction and education of its own members in its own language, while conforming to such educational requirements of a general nature as the administration may impose, shall not be denied or impaired.

ARTICLE 9.—The Mandatory shall refrain from all interference in the administration of the Councils of management (Conseils de fabrique) or in the management of religious communities and sacred shrines belonging to the various religions, the immunity of which has been expressly guaranteed.

ARTICLE 5.—Seront sans application en Syrie et au Liban les privilèges et immunités des étrangers, y compris la juridiction consulaire et la protection, tels qu'ils étaient autrefois pratiquées dans l'Empire ottoman, en vertu des Capitulations et des usages. Toutefois les tribunaux consulaires étrangers continueront à fonctionner jusqu'à la mise en application de la nouvelle organization judiciaire prévue à l'article 6.

A moins que les Puissances, dont les ressortissants jouissaient au 1er août 1914 desdits privilèges et immunités, n'aient préalablement renoncé au rétablissment de ces privilèges et immunités ou à leur application pendant une certaine période, ceux-ci seront à la fin du mandat et sans délai rétablis intégralement ou avec telle modification qui aurait été convenue par les Puissances intéressées.

ARTICLE 6.—Le Mandataire instituera en Syrie et au Liban un système judiciaire assurant, tant aux indigènes qu'aux étrangers, la garantie complète de leurs droits.

Le respect du statut personnel des diverses populations et de leurs intérêts religieux sera entièrement garanti. En particulier, le Mandataire exercera le contrôle de l'administration des Wakoufs en parfaite conformité avec les lois religieuses et la volonté des fondateurs.

ARTICLE 7.—En attendant la conclusion des conventions spéciales d'extradition, les traités d'extradition en vigueur entre les Puissances étrangères et le Mandataire seront appliqués sur les territoires de la Syrie et du Liban.

ARTICLE 8.—Le Mandataire garantira à toute personne la plus complète liberté de conscience, ainsi que le libre exercice de toutes les formes de culte compatibles avec l'ordre public et les bonnes mœurs. Il n'y aura aucune inégalité de traitement entre les habitants de la Syrie et du Liban du fait des différences de race, de religion ou de langue.

Le Mandataire développera l'instruction publique donnée au moyen des langues indigènes en usage sur les territoires de la Syrie et du Liban.

Il ne sera porté aucune atteinte au droit des communautés de conserver leurs écoles en vue de l'instruction et de l'éducation de leurs membres dans leur propre langue, à condition de se conformer aux prescriptions générales sur l'instruction publique édictées par l'administration.

ARTICLE 9.—Le Mandataire s'abstiendra de toute intervention dans l'administration des Conseils de fabrique ou dans la direction des communautés religieuses et sanctuaires des diverses religions, dont les immunités sont expressément garanties.

Mandate—Contd.

ARTICLE 10.—The supervision exercised by the Mandatory over the religious missions in Syria and the Lebanon shall be limited to the maintenance of public order and good government; the activities of these religious missions shall in no way be restricted, nor shall their members be subjected to any restrictive measures on the ground of nationality, provided that their activities are confined to the domain of religion.

The religious missions may also concern themselves with education and relief, subject to the general right of regulation and control by the Mandatory or of the local government, in regard to education, public instruction and charitable relief.

ARTICLE 11.—The Mandatory shall see that there is no discrimination in Syria or the Lebanon against the nationals, including societies and associations, of any State Member of the League of Nations as compared with its own nationals, including societies and associations, or with the nationals of any other foreign State in matters concerning taxation or commerce, the exercise of professions or industries, or navigation, or in the treatment of ships or aircraft. Similarly, there shall be no discrimination in Syria or the Lebanon against goods originating in or destined for any of the said States; there shall be freedom of transit, under equitable conditions, across the said territory.

Subject to the above, the Mandatory may impose or cause to be imposed by the local governments such taxes and customs duties as it may consider necessary. The Mandatory, or the local governments acting under its advice, may also conclude on grounds of continguity any special customs arrangements with an adjoining country.

The Mandatory may take or cause to be taken, subject to the provisions of paragraph 1 of this article, such steps as it may think best to ensure the development of the natural resources of the said territory and to safeguard the interests of the local population.

Concessions for the development of these natural resources shall be granted without distinction of nationality between the nationals of all States Members of the League of Nations, but on condition that they do not infringe upon the authority of the local Government. Concessions in the nature of a general monopoly shall not be granted. This clause shall in no way limit the right of the Mandatory to create monopolies of a purely fiscal character in the interest of the territory of Syria and the Lebanon, and with a view to assuring to the ARTICLE 10.—Le contrôle exercé par le Mandataire sur les missions religieuses en Syrie et au Liban se bornera au maintien de l'ordre public et de la bonne administration; aucune atteinte ne sera portée à la libre activité desdites missions religieuses. Les membres de ces missions ne seront l'objet d'aucune mesure restrictive du fait de leur nationalité, pourvu que leur activité ne sorte pas du domaine religieux.

Les missions religieuses pourront également s'occuper d'œuvres d'instruction et d'assistance publique sous réserve du droit général de réglementation et de contrôle du Mandataire ou des gouvernements locaux en matière d'éducation, d'instruction et d'assistance publique.

ARTICLE 11.—Il appartiendra au Mandataire de faire en sorte qu'aucune mesure ne soit prise de nature à mettre en Syrie et au Liban les ressortissants y compris les sociétés et les associations, d'un État Membre de la Société des Nations dans un état d'infériorité, soit par rapport à ses propes ressortissants, y compris les sociétés et associations, soit par rapport à ceux de tout autre État étranger, aussi bien en matière fiscale et commerciale qu'au point de vue de l'exercice des industries et professions, de la navigation et du traitement accordé aux navires et aéronefs. De même, il ne sera imposé en Syrie et au Liban aucun traitement différentiel entre les marchandises originaires ou à destination de l'un desdits États; il y aura, dans des conditions équitables liberté de transit à travers lesdits territoires.

Sous réserve des stipulations ci-dessus, le Mandataire pourra établir ou faire établir par les gouvernements locaux toutes taxes et droits de douane jugés necessaires. Le Mandataire, ou le gouvernement local agissant sur ses conseils, pourra égaglement conclure, pour des raisons de voisinage, des arrangements douaniers speciaux avec un pays limitrophe.

Le Mandataire pourra prendre ou faire prendre, sous réserve des stipulations de l'alinéa premier du présent article, toutes les mesures propres à assurer le développement des ressources naturelles desdits territoires et à sauvegarder les intérêts des populations locales.

Les concessions pour le développement desdites ressources naturelles seront accordées sans distinction du fait de la nationalité entre les ressortissants de tous les États Membres de la Société des Nations, mais à des conditions qui conserveront intacte l'autorité du gouvernement local. Il ne sera pas accordé de concession ayant le caractère d'un monopole général. Cette clause ne fara pas obstacle au droit du Mandataire de créer des monopoles d'un caractère purement fiscal dans l'intérêt des territoires de la Syrie et du Liban et en vue de territory the fiscal resources which would appear best adpated to the local needs, or, in certain cases, with a view to developing the natural resources either directly by the State or through an organisation under its control, provided that this does not involve either directly or indirectly the creation of a monopoly of the natural resources in favour of the Mandatory or its nationals, nor involve any preferential treatment which would be incompatible with the economic, commercial and industrial equality guaranteed above.

ARTICLE 12.—The Mandatory shall adhere, on behalf of Syria and the Lebanon, to any general international agreements already existing, or which may be concluded hereafter with the approval of the League of Nations, in respect of the following: the slave trade, the traffic in drugs, the traffic in arms and ammunition, commercial equality, freedom of transit and navigation, aerial navigation, postal, telegraphic or wireless communications, and measures for the protection of literature, art or industries.

ARTICLE 13.—The Mandatory shall secure the adhesion of Syria and the Lebanon, so far as social, religious and other conditions permit, to such measures of common utility as may be adopted by the League of Nations for preventing and combating disease, including diseases of animals and plants.

ARTICLE 14.—The Mandatory shall draw up and put into force within twelve months from this date a law of antiquities in conformity with the following provisions. This law shall ensure equality of treatment in the matter of excavations and archæological research to the nationals of all States Members of the League of Nations.

1° "Antiquity" means any construction or any product of human activity earlier than the year 1700 A. D.

2° The law for the protection of antiquities shall proceed by encouragement rather than by threat.

Any person who, having discovered an antiquity without being furnished with the authorisation referred to in paragraph 5, reports the same to an official of the competent Department, shall be rewarded according to the value of the discovery.

3° No antiquity may be disposed of except to the competent Department, unless this Department renounces the acquisition of any such antiquity.

No antiquity may leave the fountry without an export licence from the said Department.

4° Any person who maliciously or negligently destroys or damages an antiquity shall be liable to a penalty to be fixed.

5° No clearing of ground or digging with the object of finding antiquities shall be permitted, under penalty of ARTICLE 12.—Le Mandataire devra adhérer, pour le compte de la Syrie ou du Liban, aux conventions internationales générales conclues ou à conclure avec l'approbation de la Société des Nations, sur les sujets suivants: traite des esclaves, trafic des stupéfiants, trafic des armes et munitions, égalité commerciale, liberté de transit et de navigation, navigation aérienne, communications postales, télégraphiques ou par télégraphie sans fil, protection littéraire, artistique ou industrielle.

ARTICLE 13.—Autant que les conditions sociales, religiuses et autres le permettent, le Mandataire assurera l'adhésion de la Syrie et du Liban aux mesures d'utilité commune qui seront adoptées par la Société des Nations pour prévenir et combattre les maladies, y compris celles des animaux et des plantes.

ARTICLE 14.—Le Mandataire élaborera et mettra en vigueur, dans un délai de douze mois à dater de ce jour, une loi sur les antiquités conforme aux dispositions ci-après. Cette loi assurera aux ressortissants de tous les États Membres de la Société des Nations l'égalité de traitement en matière de fouilles et recherches archéologiques.

1° Par "antiquités", on devra entendre toute œuvre ou produit de l'activité humaine antérieurs à l'année 1700.

2° La législation sur la protection des antiquités devra procéder plutôt par encouragements que par menaces.

Toute personne qui, ayant fait la découverte d'une antiquité sans avoir l'autorisation visée au paragraphe 5, signale cette découverte à l'autorité compétente, devra recevoir une rémunération proportionnée à la valeur de la découverte.

3° Aucune antiquité ne pourra être aliénée qu'en faveur de l'autorité compétente, à moins que celle-ci renonce à en faire l'acquisition.

Aucune antiquité ne pourra sortir du pays sans une licence délivrée par ladite autorité.

4° Toute personne qui, par malice ou négligence, détruit ou détériore une antiquité devra être passible d'une pénalité à fixer.

5° Tout déplacement de terrain ou fouilles en vue de trouver des antiquités seront interdits, sous peine d'amende, si

6° Equitable terms shall be fixed for expropriation, temporary or permanent, of lands which might be of historical or archæological interest.

7° Authorisation to excavate shall only be granted to persons who show sufficient guarantees of archæological experience. The Mandatory shall not, iu granting these authorisations act in such a way as to exclude scholars of any nation without good grounds.

8° The proceeds of excavations may be divided between the excavator and the competent Department in a proportion fixed by that Department. If division seems impossible for scientific reasons, the excavator shall receive a fair indemnity in lieu of a part of the find.

ARTICLE 15.—Upon the coming into force of the organic law referred to in article 1, an arrangement shall be made between the Mandatory and the local governments for reimbursement by the latter of all expenses incurred by the Mandatory in organising the administration, developing local resources, and carrying out permanent public works, of which the country retains the benefit. Such arrangement shall be communicated to the Council of the League of Nations.

ARTICLE 16.—French and Arabic shall be the official languages of Syria and the Lebanon,

ARTICLE 17.—The Mandatory shall make to the Council of the League of Nations an annual report to the satisfaction of the Council as to the measures taken during the year to carry out the provisions of this mandate. Copies of all laws and regulations promulgated during the year shall be attached to the said report.

ARTICLE 18.—The consent of the Council of the League of Nations is required for any modification of the terms of this mandate.

6° Des conditions équitables seront fixées pour permettre d'exproprier temporairement, ou à titre permanent, les terrains pouvant présenter un intérêt historique ou archéologique.

7° L'autorisation de procéder à des fouilles ne sera accordée qu'à des personnes présentant des garanties suffisantes d'expérience archéologique. Le Mandataire ne devra pas, en accordant ces autorisations, agir de façon à éliminer, sans motifs valables, les savants d'aucune nation.

8° Le produit des fouilles pourra être réparti entres les personnes ayant procédé à la fouille et l'autorité compétente, dans la proportion fixée par celle-ci. Si, pour des raisons scientifiques, la répartition paraît impossible, l'inventeur devra recevoir une équitable indemnité au lieu d'une partie du produit de la fouille.

ARTICLE 15.—Dès l'entrée en vigueur du statut organique visé à l'article 1er, le Mandataire s'entendra avec les gouvernements locaux relativement au remboursement par ces derniers de toutes les dépenses encourues par le Mandataire pour l'organisation de l'administration, le développement des ressources locales et l'exécution de travaux publics d'un caractère permanent, dont le bénéfice resterait acquis au pays. Cette entente sera communiqué au Conseil de la Société des Nations.

ARTICLE 16.—Le français et l'arabe seront les langues officielles de la Syrie et du Liban.

ARTICLE 17.—Le Mandataire adressera au Conseil de la Société des Nations un rapport annuel, répondant à ses vues, sur les mesures prises pendant l'année pour l'application du présent mandat. ARTICLE 20.—Le Mandataire accepte que tout différend, quel qu'il soit, qui viendrait à s'élever entre lui et un autre Membre de la Société des Nations, relatif à l'interprétation ou à l'application des dispositions du mandat et qui ne serait pas susceptible d'être réglé par des négociations, soit soumis à la Cour permanente de Justice

Preamble.

WHEREAS A Convention between the United States of America and Sweden to aid in the prevention of the smuggling of intoxicating liquors into the United States was concluded and signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at Washington on the twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, the original of which Convention, being in the English and Swedish languages, is word for word as follows:

Contracting Powers.

The President of the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Sweden being desirous of avoiding any difficulties which might arise between them in connection with the laws in force in the United States on the subject of alcoholic beverages have decided to conclude a Convention for that purpose, and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:

Amerikas Förenta Staters President och Hans Majestät Konungen av Sverige, vilka önska undvika varje svårighet, som skulle kunna uppstå dem emellan i samband med de i Förenta Staterna gällande lagar beträffande alkoholhaltiga drycker, hava beslutat att ingå en överenskommelse för detta ändamål och hava till sina fullmäktige utsett:

Plenipotentiaries.

The President of the United States of America, Mr. Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State of the United States;

His Majesty the King of Sweden, Mr. V. Assarsson, Counselor of His Legation at Washington;

Amerikas Förenta Staters President: Herr Charles Evans Hughes, Förenta Staternas statssekreterare;

Hans Majestät Konungen av Sverige: Herr V. Assarsson, Legationsråd vid Dess Beskickning i Washington;

Who, having communicated their full powers found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

Vilka, efter att hava meddelat varandra sina fullmakter, som befunnos i god och behörig form, överenskommit om följande:

ARTICLE I.

Territorial jurisdiction retained.

The High Contracting Parties respectively retain their rights and claims, without prejudice by reason of this agreement, with respect to the extent of their territorial jurisdiction.

ARTIKEL I.

De Höga Fördragsslutande Parterna vidhålla sina respektive rättigheter och anspråk ifråga om utsträckningen av sin territoriella jurisdiktion utan att giva denna traktat någon prejudicierande verkan.

ARTICLE II.

(1) His Majesty agrees that he will raise no objection to the boarding of private vessels under the Swedish flag outside the limits of territorial waters by the authorities of the United States, its territories or possessions in order that enquiries may be addressed to those on board and an examination be made of the ship's papers for the purpose of ascertaining whether the vessel or those on board are endeavoring to import or have imported alcoholic beverages into the United States, its territories or possessions in violation of the laws there in force. When such enquiries and examination show a reasonable ground for suspicion, a search of the vessel may be initiated.

(2) If there is reasonable cause for belief that the vessel has committed or is committing or attempting to commit an offense against the laws of the United States, its territories or possessions prohibiting the importation of alcoholic beverages, the vessel may be seized and taken into a port of the United States, its territories or possessions for adjudication in accordance with such laws.

(3) The rights conferred by this article shall not be exercised at a greater distance from the coast of the United States its territories or possessions than can be traversed in one hour by the vessel suspected of endeavoring to commit the offense. In cases, however, in which the liquor is intended to be conveyed to the United States its territories or possessions by a vessel other than the one boarded and searched, it shall be the speed of such other vessel and not the speed of the vessel boarded, which shall determine the distance from the coast at which the right under this article can be exercised.

ARTIKEL II.

(1) Hans Majestät samtycker till att icke göra någon invändning mot att privata fartyg under svensk flagg utanför territorialvattengränsen äntras av myndighetspersoner från Förenta Staterna, dess territorier eller besittningar för att ställa förfrågningar till de ombordvarande och granska skeppspapperen i ändamål att fastställa, huruvida fartyget eller de ombordvarande försöka införa eller hava infört alkoholhaltiga drycker till Förenta Staterna, dess territorier eller besittningar i strid mot där gällande lagar. När dylika förfrågningar och granskningar lämna skälig grund för misstanke, må undersökning av fartyget igångsättas.

Boarding of private Swedish vessels outside limits, for inquiry, etc., not objected to.

Search of vessel on reasonable ground for suspicion.

(2) Om skälig orsak förefinnes antaga, att fartyget har begått, håller på att begå eller försöker att begå överträdelse av i Förenta Staterna, dess territorier eller besittningar gällande lagar, som förbjuda införsel av alkoholhaltiga drycker, må fartyget beslagtagas och föras till hamn i Förenta Staterna, dess territorier eller besittningar i och för rannsakning och dom i enlighet med ifrågavarande lagar.

Seizure of vessel believed to be violating American prohibition laws.

(3) De genom denna artikel givna rättigheter må icke utövas på större avstånd från kusten av Förenta Staterna, dess territorier eller besittningar än som kan tillryggaläggas på en timme av det fartyg som misstänkes för att försöka begå överträdelsen. I de fall, emellertid, då spritdryckerna äro avsedda att transporteras till Förenta Staterna, dess territorier eller besittningar av ett annat fartyg än det äntrade och undersökta, skall annat sådant fartygs hastighet och icke det äntrade fartygets hastighet bestämma det avstånd från kusten, inom vilket de i denna artikel givna rättigheter kunna utövas.

Distance from coast limited for boarding, etc., vessels.

Extension if liquor conveyed by other vessel.

No penalty or forfeiture under the laws of the United States shall be applicable or attach to

ARTICLE IV.

Enas nämnda personer om ett gemensamt yttrande, skall detta hava bindande verkan. Kan enighet icke uppnås om gemensamt yttrande skall kravet hänskjutas till Permanenta Skiljedomstolen i Haag, omnämnd i Konventionen om avgörande på fredlig väg av internationella tvister, avslutad i Haag den 18 oktober 1907. Parcels that have been so opened shall be closed again with official seals. Either country may require a special impress or mark of the sender in the sealing of insured parcels mailed in its service as a means of protection.

Addressing, etc.

2. Insured parcels shall not be addressed to initials.

Each insured parcel must be labelled "Insured" in a conspicuous manner and must bear a distinguishing number. The Customs Declaration, if not gummed to the parcel, must also be labelled "Insured".

No insured parcel need have written on it information as to the value of its contents, although this may be stated in the accompanying customs declaration.

The labels or stamps on insured parcels containing coin, articles of gold or silver, jewellry or other precious articles must be so placed that they cannot serve to conceal injuries to the cover. They must not be folded over two sides of the cover so as to hide the edge.

Advice of delivery.

3. The sender of an insured parcel may obtain an advice of delivery upon payment of such additional charge, if any, as the country of origin of the parcel shall stipulate. A fee may be charged, at the option of the country of origin, on a request for information as to the disposal of an insured parcel made after it has been posted, if the sender has not already paid the special fee to obtain an advice of delivery. These fees will be retained by the country of origin.

Form.

When an advice of delivery is desired, the sender or office of origin shall write or stamp on the parcel, in a conspicuous manner, the words, "Return receipt requested", "Advice of delivery requested", or, boldly, the letters "A R".

The form of advice of delivery is made out by the office of origin or by any other office which the country of origin may appoint. If it does not reach the office of destination, that office supplies an advice of delivery if the parcel bears request therefor.

Advices of delivery, after being completed, shall, unless otherwise requested by the country of origin be returned direct to the sender by ordinary mail without charge for postage.

Application after posting.

When, after an insured parcel has been posted, the sender applies for an advice of delivery, the office of origin enters on a form of advice of delivery an exact description of the parcel (office of origin, date of posting, number, and name and address of sender and of addressee). This form is transmitted from administration to administration with an indication of the mail in which the parcel under inquiry was delivered to the corresponding office of exchange. The office of destination completes the form, and returns it to the sender unless otherwise requested by the country of origin.

Action if advice not received.

If an advice of delivery duly applied for by the sender at the time of posting is not received back at the office of origin at the end of a proper interval, an inquiry for the missing advice shall be instituted in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the preceding paragraph. The Office of origin shall enter at the top of the form of Advice of delivery the note "Duplicate Advice of Delivery" or some equivalent expression.

Separate parcel bills.

4. The insured parcels shall be entered by the dispatching office of exchange on separate parcel bills which shall show in respect of each parcel, the insurance number and the office (and state or country) of origin. Additional indicia may be required from time to time if found necessary.

Notice of damage, etc.

5. Parcels bearing evidence of violation or damage must have the facts noted on them and be marked with the stamp of the office making the note, or a document drawing attention to the violation or damage must be forwarded with the parcels.

Nondelivery of insured parcels.

6. If an insured parcel cannot be delivered as addressed or is refused by the addressee, the parcel shall be treated in accordance with Article XV. Such a parcel if returned, shall be returned as insured.

Redirected parcels.

7. When an insured parcel is redirected to either country or is returned to the country of origin, a new insurance fee shall be collected upon delivery and retained by the country making the collection. The Post Office making delivery shall fix the amount of such fee in accordance with its regulations.

Indemnity provisions.

8. Except in cases of loss or damage through force majeure (causes beyond control) as that term is defined by the legal decisions of the country in the service of which the loss or damage occurs, when an insured parcel has been lost or damaged or all or part of its contents abstracted, the sender, or in default of or at the request of the sender, the addressee, shall be entitled to an indemnity corresponding to the actual amount, based on the actual value at the time of mailing, of the loss, abstraction, or damage, unless the damage has arisen from the fault or negligence of the sender or the addressee or the representative of either, or from the nature of the article, provided always that the indemnity does not exceed the sum for which the parcel was insured and for which the required insurance fee was paid.

Postage on lost parcels to be returned.

The sender of an insured parcel which has been lost, or of which the contents have been lost or completely destroyed in the post, shall also be entitled to the return of the postage. He is not, however, entitled to the return of the insurance fee.

No compensation if alleged contents above real value.

In case the sender of an insured parcel, with intent to defraud, shall at any time allege the contents to be above their real value, he shall lose all claim to compensation or to the return of the postage, and the enforcement of this rule shall not prejudice any legal proceedings to which such fraudulent declaration may have rendered him liable.

Office responsible for indemnity.

The obligation of paying the indemnity shall rest with the country to which the mailing office is subordinate. That country can make a claim on the country responsible, that is to say, against the administration on the territory or in the service of which the loss, abstraction, or damage took place.

Until the contrary is proved, responsibility for an insured parcel rests with the country which having received the parcel without making any observation cannot establish correct delivery or other proper disposition.

Responsibility for loss damage or for abstraction discovered by the receiving Office of Exchange at the time of opening the receptacles and duly notified to the despatching Office of Exchange by verification note shall fall upon the Administration to which the despatching Office of Exchange is subordinate unless it be proved that the loss damage or abstraction occurred during transit in the service of the receiving Administration.

If the loss, abstraction, or damage occurred in the course of conveyance, and it shall not be possible to ascertain on the territory or in the service of which country the loss, abstraction, or damage took place, the indemnity shall be shared equally.

No responsibility if receipted for without reservation.

No responsibility will be admitted for insured parcels for which the sender or addressee or authorized representative of either has given a receipt and accepted delivery without reservation, nor for articles which cannot be accounted for in consequence of the destruction of official documents through causes beyond control.

No indemnity if parcel of no intrinsic value, or prohibited matter.

No indemnity will be paid for insured parcels which contain matter of no intrinsic value or matter prohibited transmission in the parcel-post mails exchanged between the United States and Great Britain and Northern Ireland, or which did not conform to the stipulations of this Agreement or which were not posted in the manner prescribed; but the country responsible for the loss, damage or abstraction may pay indemnity in respect of such parcels without recourse to the other Administration.

Time for filing claims.

No application for indemnity will be entertained unless a claim or an initial inquiry oral or written shall be filed by claimant or his representative within a year commencing with the day following the posting of the insured parcel.

Payment provisions.

The payment of indemnity by the country of origin must take place as soon as practicable and at the latest within a year of the date of the application. The country of origin is, however, authorised to settle with the sender on behalf of the country of destination which has after being duly informed of the application for indemnity let nine months pass without settling the matter. The dispatching country may exceptionally postpone settlement of the indemnity beyond the period mentioned, when, on expiration of the period, it has not been definitely informed as to the disposal of the article inquired for or when the question whether the loss of the article is due to a cause beyond control is not yet decided.

Refund by country responsible.

The country responsible or on whose behalf the payment is made is bound to make good without delay, the amount of indemnity paid.

Indirect damages.

No compensation shall be given for injury or damage consequential upon, i. e. indirectly arising from, the loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, or mis-delivery of any insured parcel transmitted under this Agreement.

Decision of compensation.

The final decision upon all questions of compensation rests with the administration of the country in which the loss or damage has taken place.

The reason for this amendment shall be notified to the said office by means of a verification note.

When a parcel has been wrongly allowed to be despatched in consequence of an error on the part of the postal service, and has for this reason to be returned to the country of origin, the procedure followed shall be the same as if the parcel had to be sent back to the despatching office in consequence of missending.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Convention with Panama to prevent smuggling of intoxicating liquors into United States.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a convention between the United States of America and Panama to aid in preventing the smuggling of intoxicating liquors into the United States was concluded and signed by their respective Plenipotentiaries at Washington on the sixth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, the original of which convention, being in the English and Spanish languages, is word for word as follows:

Contracting Powers.

The President of the United States of America and the President of the Republic of Panama being desirous of avoiding any difficulties which might arise between them in connection with the laws in force in the United States on the subject of alcoholic beverages have decided to conclude a Convention for that purpose, and have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries:

El Presidente de los Estados Unidos de América y el Presidente de la República de Panamá, deseosos de evitar cualesquiera dificultades que puedan surgir entre ellos en relación con las leyes vigentes de los Estados Unidos en materia de bebidas alcohólicas, han decidido celebrar una convención con tal objeto y han nombrado como Plenipotenciarios:

Plenipotentiaries.

The President of the United States of America, Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State of the United States of America, and

The President of Panama, Ricardo J. Alfaro, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Panama in Washington,

Who, having communicated their full powers found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

El Presidente de los Estados Unidos de América a Charles Evans Hughes, Secretario de Estado de los Estados Unidos de América, y

El Presidente de Panamá a Ricardo J. Alfaro, Enviado Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario de la República de Panamá en Washington, quienes, habiéndose comunicado sus Plenos Poderes, los que han sido hallados en buena y debida forma, han convenido en lo siguiente:

ARTICLE I.

Territorial jurisdiction retained.

The High Contracting Parties declare that it is their firm intention to uphold the principle that three marine miles extending from the coast line outwards and measured from low-water mark constitute the proper limits of territorial waters.

ARTICULO I.

Las Altas Partes Contratantes declaran que es su firme intención mantener el principio de que tres millas marítimas que se extiendan de la línea de la costa hacia afuera y medidas desde la línea de la baja mar, constituyen el límite propio de las aguas territoriales.

ARTICLE II.

Boarding of private Panaman vessels outside limits, for inquiry, etc., not objected to.

(1) The President of Panama agrees that Panama will raise no objection to the boarding of private vessels under the Panaman flag outside the limits of territorial waters by the authorities of the United States, its territories or possessions, in order that enquiries may be addressed to those on board and an examination be made of the ship's papers for the purpose of ascertaining whether the vessel or those on board are endeavoring to import or have imported alcoholic beverages into the United States, its territories or possessions in violation of the laws there in force. When such enquiries and examinations show a reasonable ground for suspicion, a search of the vessel may be initiated.

Search of vessel on reasonable ground for suspicion.

Seizure of vessel believed to be violating American prohibition laws.

(2) If there is reasonable cause for belief that the vessel has committed or is committing or attempting to commit an offense against the laws of the United States, its territories or possessions prohibiting the importation of alcoholic beverages, the vessel may be seized and taken into a port of the United States, its territories or possessions for adjudication in accordance with such laws.

Distance from coast limited to boarding, etc., vessels.

(3) The rights conferred by this article shall not be exercised at a greater distance from the coast of the United States its territories or possessions than can be traversed in one hour by the vessel suspected of endeavoring to commit the offense, and shall not be exercised in waters adjacent to territorial waters of the Canal Zone. In cases, however, in which the liquor is intended to be conveyed to the United States its territories or possessions by a vessel other than the one boarded and searched, it shall be the speed of such other vessel and not the speed of the vessel boarded, which shall determine the distance from the coast at which the right under this article can be exercised.

Canal Zone waters excepted.

Extension if liquor conveyed by other vessel.

ARTICULO II.

(1) El Presidente de Panamá conviene en que Panamá no hará objeción a que las naves de propiedad particular que naveguen bajo la bandera de Panamá sean visitadas fuera de los límites de las aguas territorales por las autoridades de los Estados Unidos, sus territorios o posesiones, a fin de que puedan ser indagadas las personas que se hallen a bordo y se examinen los papeles del buque con el objeto de verificar si la nave o los que se encuentran a bordo tratan de importar o han importado bebidas alcohólicas a los Estados Unidos, sus territorios o posesiones, en contravención de las leyes allí vigentes. Cuando tales indagatorias y examen den motivo rasonable para sospechas, se podrá proceder al registro de la nave.

(2) Si hubiere motivos fundados para creer que la nave ha cometido o está cometiendo o intentando cometer un delito contra las leyes de los Estados Unidos, sus territorios o posesiones, que prohiben la importación de bebidas alcohólicas, la nave puede ser apresada y llevada a un puerto de los Estados Unidos, sus territorios o posesiones para su juzgamiento de acuerdo con tales leyes.

(3) Los derechos conferidos en este artículo no serán ejercidos a mayor distancia de la costa de los Estados Unidos, sus territorios o posesiones de la que puede atravesar en una hora la nave que se sospecha trata de cometer el delito, y no serán ejercidos en aguas adyacentes a las aguas territoriales de la Zona del Canal. No obstante, en casos en que se tiene la intención de llevar licor a los Estados Unidos, sus territorios o posesiones por una nave distinta de la que ha sido visitada y registrada, la velocidad de esta otra nave y no la velocidad de la nave visitada será la que determine la distancia de la costa dentro de la cual puede ejercerse el derecho conferido en este artículo.

ARTICLE III.

No penalty or forfeiture under the laws of the United States shall be applicable or attach to alcoholic liquors or to vessels or persons by reason of the carriage of such liquors, when such liquors are listed as sea stores or cargo destined for a port foreign to the United States, its territories or possessions on board Panaman vessels voyaging to or from ports of the United States, or its territories or possessions or passing through the territorial waters thereof, and such carriage shall be as now provided by law with respect to the transit of such liquors through the Panama Canal, provided that such liquors shall be kept under seal continuously while the vessel on which they are carried remains within said territorial waters and that no part of such liquors shall at any time or place be unladen within the United States, its territories or possessions.

ARTICULO III.

Liquors listed as sea stores or cargo for a foreign port not subjected to penalty, etc.

No estarán sujetos a pena ni comiso, según las leyes de los Estados Unidos, ni los licores alcohólicos ni las naves ni las personas por razón del transporte de tales licores, cuando ellos sean declarados como aprovisionamiento de la nave o como carga destinada a un puerto fuera de los Estados Unidos, sus territorios o posesiones, a bordo de naves panameñas que viajen de o para puertos de los Estados Unidos, sus territorios o posesiones, o que pasen por sus aguas territoriales, y tal transporte será como el que establece la ley con respecto al tránsito de licores por el Canal de Panamá, a condicion de que tales licores sean mantenidos constantemente bajo sello mientras la nave que los lleva permanezca dentro de dichas aguas territoriales y a condición de que tales licores no sean descargados en ningún tiempo ni lugar dentro de los Estados Unidos, sus territorios o posesiones.

To be kept under seal while in American waters.

ARTICLE IV.

Any claim by a Panaman vessel for compensation on the grounds that it has suffered loss or injury through the improper or unreasonable exercise of the rights conferred by Article II of this Treaty or on the ground that it has not been given the benefit of Article III shall be referred for the joint consideration of two persons, one of whom shall be nominated by each of the High Contracting Parties.

Effect shall be given to the recommendations contained in any such joint report. If no joint report can be agreed upon, the claim shall be referred to the Permanent Court of Arbitration at The Hague described in the Convention for the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes, concluded at The Hague, October 18, 1907. The Arbitral Tribunal shall be constituted in accordance with Article 87 (Chapter IV) and with Article 59 (Chapter III) of the said Convention. The proceedings shall Si no hubiere acuerdo para tal decisión conjunta, la reclamación será sometida a la Corte Permanente de Arbitraje de La Haya que se describe en la Convención para el Arreglo Pacífico de Disputas Internacionales celebrada en La Haya el 18 de Octubre de 1907. CONVENTION BETWEEN THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF POSTS OF SIAM CONCERNING THE EXCHANGE OF PARCEL POST.

Parcel post convention with Siam. Preamble.

The undersigned, Harry S. New, Postmaster General of the United States of America, and Lieutenant General Phya Devahastin, Director General of Posts and Telegraphs of Siam, by virtue of authority vested in them, for the purpose of making better arrangements for a parcel post system of exchange between the two countries, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I.

Scope of convention.

The provisions of this Convention relate only to parcels to be exchanged by the system herein provided for and do not affect the arrangements now existing under the Universal Postal Convention, which will continue as heretofore; and all the agreements hereinafter contained apply exclusively to mails exchanged under these articles.

ARTICLE II.

Articles admitted to the mails.

1. There shall be admitted to the mails exchanged under this Convention articles of merchandise and mail matter—except letters and post cards—of all kinds that are admitted under any conditions to the domestic mails of the country of origin and the country of destination except that no packet may exceed eleven pounds (five kilograms) in weight, nor the following dimensions: Greatest length in any direction three feet six inches; greatest combined length and girth, six feet; and must be so wrapped and inclosed as to permit their contents to be easily examined by postmasters and customs officials; and except that the following articles are specially prohibited admission to the mails exchanged under this Convention:

Prohibited articles.

Publications which violate the copyright laws of the country of destination; poisons and explosive or inflammable substances; intoxicating liquors; opium in any form or any preparation or derivative thereof, cocaine or other narcotics; any obscene book, pamphlet, paper, writing, advertisement, circular, print, picture, drawing or other representation, figure, or image on or of paper or other material, or any cast, instrument, or other article whatever for the prevention of conception or for causing unlawful abortion; any lottery ticket or any advertisement of any lottery; live or dead animals, except dead insects and reptiles when thoroughly dried; fruits and vegetables and other articles which easily decompose and deteriorate; and substances which exhale a bad odor; articles which may in any way damage or destroy the mails or injure the persons handling them.

Additional, into United States.

In addition, the following articles are prohibited transmission through the mails into the United States: Films or pictorial representations of prize fights; plumage or skins of wild birds, except for scientific or educational purposes; and all articles manufactured wholly or in part in a foreign country by convict labor.

Into Siam.

With respect to Siam, the following articles, in addition, are prohibited: Firearms, air-guns and all accessories to firearms and air-guns; also ammunition.

Subsequent changes to be supplied.

Each country will supply, from time to time, a list of articles that may hereafter become prohibited, or, being removed from the prohibited list, become acceptable through the mails exchanged under these articles.

Marking required.

Every article imported into the United States which is capable of being marked, stamped, branded or labeled, without injury, at the time of its manufacture or production, shall be marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, in legible English words, in a conspicuous place that shall not be covered or obscured by any subsequent attachments or arrangements, so as to indicate the country of origin; such marking, stamping, branding or labeling shall be as nearly indelible and permanent as the nature of the article will permit.

Freedom from inspection, etc.

2. All admissible articles of merchandise mailed in one country for the other, or received in one country from the other, shall be free from any detention or inspection whatsoever, except such as is required in connection with the treatment by customs officers and for the collection of customs duties; and shall be forwarded promptly to their destination, being subject in their transmission to the laws and regulations of each country, respectively.

ARTICLE III.

Letters not to accompany parcels.

1. A letter or communication of the nature of personal correspondence must not accompany, be written on, or inclosed with any parcel.

Rejection if found, etc.

2. If such be found, the letter will be placed in the mails, if separable, or, if the communication be inseparably attached, the whole package will be rejected. If, however, any such parcel should inadvertently be forwarded, the country of destination will collect on the letter or letters double rates of postage, according to the rates prescribed by the Universal Postal Convention.

No inclosure for other address.

3. No parcel may contain packages intended for delivery at an address other than that borne by the parcel itself. If such inclosed packages be detected, they must be sent forward singly, charged with new and distinct parcel post rates.

ARTICLE IV.

Rates of postage.

1. The following rates of postage must in all cases be fully prepaid, viz:

In United States.

2. In the United States for a parcel not exceeding one pound in weight, 12 cents; and for each additional pound or fraction of a pound, 12 cents.

In Siam.

3. In Siam 95 satangs (about 35 cents gold) for parcels up to 1 pound in weight, and 40 satangs (13 cents gold) for each additional pound.

Delivery.

4. The parcels shall be promptly delivered to addressees in accordance with the domestic regulations of the country of destination, free of charge for postage; but the country of destination may, at its option, levy and collect from the addressees, for domestic service and delivery, a charge, the amount of which should be fixed according to its domestic regulations, but which shall in no case exceed 25 centimes (gold), or the equivalent of that sum in the money of the country of destination, for each parcel whatever its weight.

Customs charges.

5. Every parcel shall be subject, in the country of destination, to all customs duties and all customs regulations in force in that country for the protection of its customs revenues; and the customs and other duties properly chargeable thereon shall be collected on delivery, in accordance with the customs regulations of the country of destination.

ARTICLE V.

Descriptive list.

1. The sender of each parcel shall prepare a customs declaration, to be securely attached to the parcel, upon a special form provided for the purpose, giving a general description of the parcel, an accurate statement of its contents and value, date of mailing, the sender's signature and address, as well as the name and address of the addressee.

Receipt of posting.

2. The sender will, on request at the time of mailing the parcel, receive a certificate of mailing from the post office where the parcel is mailed, on a form provided for the purpose.

Registry.

3. The sender of a parcel may have the same registered by paying in addition to the postage the registration fee regularly charged in the country of origin.

Acknowledgment of delivery.

4. An acknowledgement of the delivery of a registered parcel shall be returned to the sender when request is made for such receipt at the time of mailing.

ARTICLE VI.

Inability to deliver.

Senders of parcels in either country may provide for their alternative disposition when they are not delivered at the first address to which directed. This may be done by the senders making a request by an indorsement in writing on the wrapper or by means of a paster attached thereto, in one or other of the following forms:

(a) If undeliverable as addressed, deliver to ———.

(b) If undeliverable as addressed, abandon.

(c) If undeliverable as addressed, return to sender.

Return.

Except as otherwise provided, undeliverable parcels will be returned to the senders at the expiration of 30 days from the date of receipt at the post office of destination, while refused parcels will be returned at once, the parcels in each case to be marked to show the reason for non-delivery. All returned parcels will be subject on delivery to the senders to the collection of any charges that may accrue thereon.

Parcels not to be returned.

However, the following described parcels need not be returned to the country of origin, but may be disposed of, without recourse, in accordance with the customs laws and regulations of the country of destination:

Ante, p. 1880.

(a) Parcels which do not conform to the conditions as to size and weight prescribed by Article II.

(b) Parcels containing articles prohibited by Article II and other prohibited importations.

(c) Parcels containing articles subject to seizure as being imported or brought into the United States in any manner contrary to law, including articles subject to seizure under the customs laws because of a false or fraudulent invoice or declaration covering the same or for any willful act or omission on the part of the sender or addressee or agent by means whereof the United States shall or may be deprived of the lawful duties.

(d) All parcels of which the addressee refuses to take delivery or declines to make formal entry when requested by the customs officer in cases where the appraised value exceeds the value shown in the declaration of entry, and where evidence of fraudulent intent is shown.

The particulars of the disposition of each parcel shall be communicated by one postal administration to the other.

Perishable articles.

2. Parcels which it has not been possible to deliver and which are liable to deterioration or corruption may, however, be sold immediately, without previous notice or legal formality, for the benefit of the person entitled thereto, the particulars of the sale being reported by one Administration to the other. The proceeds of the sale shall be devoted to paying the charges on the parcel; the remainder, if any, shall be sent to the office of origin to be paid to the sender. If for any reason a sale is impossible, the spoiled or worthless articles are destroyed or handed over to the customs.

Canceling of customs duties.

3. With the reservation that the formalities prescribed for administrative reasons by the Administrations concerned be complied with, the customs duties on parcels which have to be sent back to the country of origin or redirected to a third country shall be canceled both in the United States and in Siam.

Missent parcels.

4. Missent parcels shall be immediately returned to the dispatching office of exchange. Attention shall be called to the error by means of a Bulletin of Verification.

Abandoned parcels.

5. Parcels which are abandoned by the senders will not be returned to origin, but will be disposed of in accordance with the regulations of the country of destination.

ARTICLE VII.

Mutual payments by postal authorities.

The Postal Administration of the United States shall pay to the Postal Administration of Siam 1.75 francs gold for each parcel forwarded from the United States to Siam, and the Postal Administration of Siam shall pay a similar amount to the Postal Administration of the United States for each parcel forwarded from Siam to the United States.

Quarterly statements.

At the end of each quarter, the postal administration of the creditor country shall submit to the postal administration of the debtor country an account in duplicate showing the number of parcels dispatched by each country as indicated by the parcel bills and the balance resulting from such transaction. After verification, the amount of the balance shall be paid in money of the United States by means of a bill of exchange on New York payable at sight. Payments may also be made in cash or by means of bills of exchange drawn on places other than New York by mutual agreement between the two countries. Conversion of francs into United States currency shall be at the rate of gold francs 5.1825 equals one dollar.

Payments.

ARTICLE VIII.

Method of transportation.

1. The parcels shall be considered as a component part of the mails exchanged between the United States and Siam to be dispatched to destination by the country of origin at its cost and by such means as it provides; but must be forwarded, at the option of the despatching office, either in receptacles prepared expressly for the purpose or in ordinary mail sacks, marked "Parcel Post", and securely sealed with a lead seal or otherwise, as may be mutually provided by regulations hereunder.

Return of empty sacks.

2. Each country shall promptly return empty to the despatching office, by next mail, all such sacks or receptacles.

Exchange offices.

3. The exchanges shall be effected through the post offices of both countries already designated as exchange post offices, or through such other offices as may be hereafter agreed upon, under such regulations relative to the details of the exchange as may be mutually determined to be essential to the security and expedition of the mails and the protection of the customs revenues.

Packing.

4. Although articles admitted under this Convention will be transmitted as aforesaid between the exchange offices, they should be so carefully packed as to be safely transmitted in the open mails of either country, both in going to the exchange office in the country of origin and to the office of address in the country of destination.

Descriptive list.

5. Each despatch of a parcel post mail must be accompanied by a descriptive list in duplicate of all the parcels sent, and which must be inclosed in one of the sacks of such despatch.

ARTICLE IX.

Receipt of mails.

1. As soon as the mail shall have reached the office of destination, that office shall check the contents of the mail.

Substitute parcel bill.

2. In the event of the parcel bill not having been received, a substitute should be prepared at once.

Correction of errors.

3. Any errors in the entries on the parcel bill which may be discovered shall, after verification by a second officer, be corrected and noted for report to the despatching office on a form "Bulletin of Verification" which should be sent in a special envelope.

Nonreceipt of parcel.

4. If a parcel advised on the bill be not received, after the nonreceipt has been verified by a second officer, the entry on the bill should be canceled and the fact reported at once.

Deficient postage.

5. If a parcel be observed to be insufficiently prepaid, it must not be taxed with deficient postage, but the circumstance must be reported on a "Bulletin of Verification" form.

Damaged parcels.

6. Should a parcel be received in damaged or imperfect condition, full particulars should be reported on the same form.

Presumption of delivery.

7. If no "Bulletin of Verification" or note of error be received, a parcel mail shall be considered as duly delivered, having been found on examination correct in all respects.

ARTICLE X.

Nonresponsibility for loss, etc.

Neither of the contracting Administrations will be responsible for the loss or damage of any parcel, consequently no indemnity can be claimed by the sender or addressee in either country.

ARTICLE XI.

Further regulations, etc.

The Postmaster General of the United States of America, and the Director General of Posts of Siam, shall have authority jointly to make such further regulations of order and detail and to provide for such changes and modifications from time to time as may be found necessary to carry out the purpose of the present Convention.

ARTICLE XII.

(5) The Commissioner will examine the claims so notified. For this purpose he will be entitled to avail himself of such expert assistance as he may consider necessary, and in case of need to cause investigations to be carried out on the spot.

Remuneration of Commissioner, etc.

(6) The remuneration of the Commissioner will be fixed by agreement between the Danish Government and the other Governments concerned. The Commissioner will fix the remuneration of such assistants as he considers it necessary to employ.

Report by the Commissioner after examining the claims.

7° Après examen des réclamations, le Commissaire préparera un rapport indiquant avec précision les réclamations qui, d'après lui, doivent être immédiatement reconnues fondées et celles qui, par suite de contestation ou pour tout autre cause, devraient, à son avis, être soumises à l'arbitrage comme il est dit ci-après. Des copies de ce rapport seront transmises par le Commissaire aux Gouvernements intéressés.

If deposit insufficient to cover expenses of examination, further sum required.

8° Si le chiffre des sommes déposées en vertu de l'alinéa 3° ne suffit pas à couvrir les frais occasionnés par l'examen des revendications, le Commissaire, si la revendication lui paraît fondée, indiquera immédiatement le supplément à verser par le réclamant. Le montant de cette somme sera fixé d'après l'étendue du terrain sur lequel les titres du réclamant auront été reconnus justifiés.

Use of balance for cost of arbitration, if in excess.

Si le montant des sommes déposées en vertu de l'alinéa 3° venait à dépasser celui desdits frais, le solde en serait affecté au payment des frais de l'arbitrage prévu ci-après.

Norway to give valid title to land if claim recognized by Commissioner.

9° Dans un délai de trois mois à dater du rapport prévu à l'alinéa 7° du présent paragraphe, le Gouvernement norvégien prendra les mesures nécessaires pour conférer au réclamant dont le Commissaire aura reconnu la réclamation justifiée, un titre valable lui assurant la propriété exclusive sur le terrain en question, d'accord avec les lois et les règlements qui sont ou seront en vigueur dans les régions visées à l'article 1er du présent Traité et sous réserve des règlements miniers visés à l'article 8 dudit Traité.

Provisional title if further payment required for examination expenses.

Toutefois, dans le cas où un versement complémentaire serait nécessaire en vertu de l'alinéa 8 ci-dessus, il ne sera délivré qu'un titre provisoire qui deviendra définitif dès que le réclamant aura effectué ledit versement dans tel délai convenable, que pourra fixer le Gouvernement norvégien.

(7) The Commissioner, after examining the claims, will prepare a report showing precisely the claims which he is of opinion should be recognised at once and those which, either because they are disputed or for any other reason, he is of opinion should be submitted to arbitration as hereinafter provided. Copies of this report will be forwarded by the Commissioner to the Governments concerned.

(8) If the amount of the sums deposited in accordance with clause (3) is insufficient to cover the expenses of the examination of the claims, the Commissioner will, in every case where he is of opinion that a claim should be recognised, at once state what further sum the claimant should be required to pay. This sum will be based on the amount of the land to which the claimant's title is recognised.

If the sums deposited in accordance with clause (3) exceed the expenses of the examination, the balance will be devoted to the cost of the arbitration hereinafter provided for.

(9) Within three months from the date of the report referred to in clause (7) of this paragraph, the Norwegian Government shall take the necessary steps to confer upon claimants whose claims have been recognised by the Commissioner a valid title securing to them the exclusive property in the land in question, in accordance with the laws and regulations in force or to be enforced in the territories specified in Article 1 of the present Treaty, and subject to the mining regulations referred to in Article 8 of the present Treaty.

In the event, however, of a further payment being required in accordance with clause (8) of this paragraph, a provisional title only will be delivered, which title will become definitive on payment by the claimant, within such reasonable period as the Norwegian Government may fix, of the further sum required of him.

Les réclamations que, pour une raison quelconque, le Commissaire, prévu au paragraphe 1er, n'aura pas reconnues fondées, seront réglées d'après les dispositions suivantes:

1° Dans un délai de trois mois à dater du rapport prévu à l'alinéa 7 du paragraphe précédent, chacun des Gouvernements auxquels ressortissent les réclamants dont les réclamations n'ont pas été admises, désignera un arbitre.

Le Commissaire présidera le tribunal ainsi constitué. Il aura voix prépondérante en cas de partage. Il désignera un secrétaire chargé de recevoir les documents visés à l'alinéa 2° du présent paragraphe et de prendre les mesures nécessaires pour la réunion du tribunal.

2° Dans le délai d'un mois à dater de la nomination du secrétaire prévu à l'alinéa 1°, les réclamants feront parvenir à ce dernier, par l'intermédiaire de leurs Gouvernements respectifs, un mémoire indiquant avec précision leurs revendications, accompagné de tous documents et argumentations qu'ils pourraient désirer faire valoir à l'appui.

3° Dans le délai de deux mois à dater de la nomination du secrétaire prévu à l'alinéa 1°, le Tribunal se réunira à Copenhague à l'effet d'examiner les revendications qui lui auront été soumises.

4° La langue employée par le Tribunal sera l'anglais. Tous documents ou arguments pourront lui être présentés par les parties intéressées dans leur propre langue, mais devront être accompagnés en tout cas d'une traduction en anglais.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WARREN G. HARDING, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the power in me vested by section two of the Act of Congress approved June eight, nineteen hundred and six, entitled "An Act for the preservation of American antiquities", do proclaim that there are hereby reserved from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, subject to all prior valid adverse claims, and set apart as a National Monument to be known as Bryce Canyon National Monument, all of the tracts of land in the State of Utah which are shown on the diagram forming a part hereof.

Use of Powell National Forest not affected.

Warning is hereby given to all unauthorized persons not to appropriate, injure, deface, remove or destroy any feature of this National Monument or to locate or settle on any of the lands reserved by this proclamation.

Reserved from settlement, etc.

A PROCLAMATION

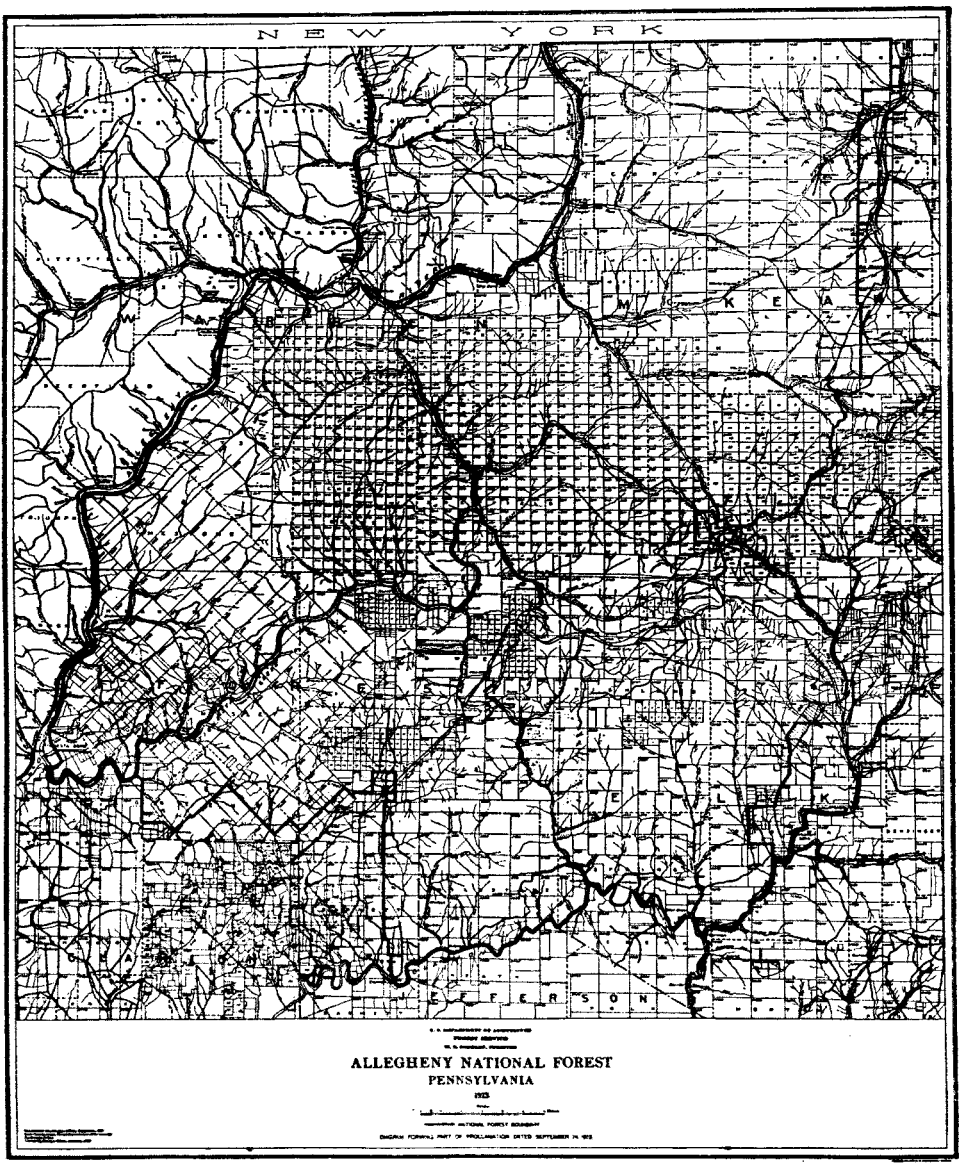
National Fire Prevention Day. Preamble.

WITH the approach of October 9th, anniversary of the great Chicago fire, it is customary for the Chief Executive to direct attention each year to the enormous fire loss of the nation and to propose the observance of that date as National Fire Prevention Day. I am informed that the national fire loss for 1922 approximated fifteen thousand lives and somewhat more than five hundred million dollars. If this is correct, or even approximately correct, it indicates that the 1922 fire waste was the largest since 1906, when the fearful San Francisco conflagration brought the total to above five hundred million dollars. The fact that, with all our improvement of methods in most directions, the fire loss continues to mount upward year by year places a striking point of interrogation opposite our claims of high national efficiency. I am informed that in 1912, which was not an exceptional year, the per capita fire loss of the country was $2.16, and that in 1922 it was $4.67. The importance of every possible measure to reduce this loss is so apparent as to require no argument. The specialists in this subject agree that probably the greater part of the loss is due to human factors, such as carelessness and moral hazards; another large portion to poor construction, inefficient enforcement of building regulations, and the like. All of these are subject to correction through proper procedures, and it is highly desirable that public attention be directed to them and every encouragement given to measures for lessening the fire menace.

In view of these facts

Recommending observance of October 9, 1923, as.



NOW, THEREFORE, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, designate Tuesday, October 9th, as National Fire Prevention Day, and recommend that it be observed in a manner most fitting. I particularly recommend the importance of educational effort through the schools, industrial establishments, and in the homes.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

A PROCLAMATION

National Education Week. Preamble.

FROM its earliest beginnings, America has been devoted to the cause of education. This country was founded on the ideal of ministering to the individual. It was realized that this must be done by the institutions of religion and government. In order that there might be a properly educated clergy and well trained civil magistrates, one of the first thoughts of the early settlers was to provide for a college of liberal culture, while for the general diffusion of knowledge, primary schools were established. This course was taken as the necessary requirement of enlightened society.

Such a policy, once adopted, has continued to grow in extent. With the adoption of the Federal Constitution and the establishment of free governments in the states of the Union, there was additional reason for broadening the opportunity for education. Our country adopted the principle of self-government by a free people. Those who were worthy of being free, were worthy of being educated.

Those who had the duty and responsibility of government, must necessarily have the education with which to discharge the obligations of citizenship. The sovereign had to be educated. The sovereign had become the people. Schools and universities were provided by the various governments, and founded and fostered by private charity, until their buildings dotted all the land.

The willingness of the people to bear the burdens of maintaining these institutions, and the patriotic devotion of an army of teachers, who, in many cases, might have earned larger incomes in other pursuits, have made it possible to accomplish results with which we may well be gratified. But the task is not finished, it has only been begun.

We have observed the evidences of a broadening vision of the whole educational system. This has included a recognition that education must not end with the period of school attendance, but must be given every encouragement thereafter. To this end the night schools of the cities, the moonlight schools of the southern Appalachian countries, the extension work of the colleges and universities, the provision for teaching technical, agricultural and mechanical arts, have marked out the path to a broader and more widely diffused national culture. To insure the permanence and continuing improvement of such an educational policy, there must be the fullest public realization of its absolute necessity. Every American citizen is entitled to a liberal education. Without this, there is no guarantee for the permanence of free institutions, no hope of perpetuating self-government. Despotism finds its chief support in ignorance. Knowledge and freedom go hand in hand.

In order that the people of the nation may think on these things, it is desirable that there should be an annual observance of Educational Week.

Urging observance of week beginning November 18, as.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim the week beginning on the eighteenth of November, next, as National Education Week, and urge its observance throughout the country. I recommend that the state and local authorities cooperate with the civic and religious bodies to secure its most general and helpful observance, for the purpose of more liberally supporting and more effectively improving the educational facilities of our country.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Thanksgiving Day, 1923. Preamble.

The American people, from their earliest days, have observed the wise custom of acknowledging each year the bounty with which divine Providence has favored them. In the beginnings, this acknowledgment was a voluntary return of thanks by the community for the fruitfulness of the harvest. Though our mode of life has greatly changed, this custom has always survived. It has made Thanksgiving Day not only one of the oldest but one of the most characteristic observances of our country. On that day, in home and church, in family and in public gatherings, the whole nation has for generations paid the tribute due from grateful hearts for blessings bestowed.

To center our thought in this way upon the favor which we have been shown has been altogether wise and desirable. It has given opportunity justly to balance the good and the evil which we have experienced. In that we have never failed to find reasons for being grateful to God for a generous preponderance of the good. Even in the least propitious times, a broad contemplation of our whole position has never failed to disclose overwhelming reasons for thankfulness. Thus viewing our situation, we have found warrant for a more hopeful and confident attitude toward the future.

In this current year, we now approach the time which has been accepted by custom as most fitting for the calm survey of our estate and the return of thanks. We shall the more keenly realize our good fortune, if we will, in deep sincerity, give to it due thought, and more especially, if we will compare it with that of any other community in the world.

The year has brought to our people two tragic experiences which have deeply affected them. One was the death of our beloved President Harding, which has been mourned wherever there is a realization of the worth of high ideals, noble purpose and unselfish service carried even to the end of supreme sacrifice. His loss recalled the nation to a less captious and more charitable attitude. It sobered the whole thought of the country. A little later came the unparalleled disaster to the friendly people of Japan. This called forth from the people of the United States a demonstration of deep and humane feeling. It was wrought into the substance of good works. It created new evidences of our international friendship, which is a guarantee of world peace. It replenished the charitable impulse of the country.

By experiences, such as these, men and nations are tested and refined. We have been blessed with much of material prosperity. We shall be better able to appreciate it if we remember the privations others have suffered, and we shall be the more worthy of it if we use it for their relief. We will do well then to render thanks for the good that has come to us, and show by our actions that we have become stronger, wiser, and truer by the chastenings which have been imposed upon us. We will thus prepare ourselves for the part we must take in a world which forever needs the full measure of service. We have been a most favored people. We ought to be a most generous people. We have been a most blessed people. We ought to be a most thankful people.

Thursday, November 29, 1923, designated as Thanksgiving Day.

WHEREFORE, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, do hereby fix and designate Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November, as Thanksgiving Day, and recommend its general observance throughout the land. It is urged that the people, gathering in their homes and their usual places of worship, give expression to their gratitude for the benefits and blessings that a gracious Providence has bestowed upon them, and seek the guidance of Almighty God, that they may deserve a continuance of His favor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the United States.

WHEREAS, by Proclamations, the President of the United States has, at various times, created certain National Forests, within the State of Washington; and — Preamble.

WHEREAS, In order to provide for a proper adjustment of the claims of the State to lands within said National Forests, in satisfaction of its common school grant, a memorandum of agreement was entered into under date of December 22, 1914, between the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture and the State of Washington, whereby it was agreed that the said State should relinquish all its title or claim under its grant in aid of common schools to the whole or parts of certain sections sixteen and thirty-six included within the said National Forests prior to survey, or upon which homestead settlements had been made prior to survey and inclusion within such reservations and legally maintained, and be allowed to select other lands equivalent in acreage and value lying along and within the boundaries of said National Forests in such position that, when eliminated therefrom, all of said selected lands will lie outside the new exterior boundaries of the National Forests; and

WHEREAS, It appears that the public interests would be promoted by modifying Executive order of December 31, 1920, No. 3380, affecting the boundaries of the Chelan National Forest, so as to exclude the areas first hereinafter described, and also so as to allow the State of Washington, in furtherance of the aforesaid agreement, to make selections of the lands agreed upon for selection, and hereinafter described, as indemnity in satisfaction of the aforesaid portions of its common school grant;

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Announcing death of former President Woodrow Wilson.

To the People of the United States:

The death of Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States from March 4, 1913, to March 4, 1921, which occurred at 11:15 o'clock today at his home at Washington, District of Columbia, deprives the country of a most distinguished citizen, and is an event which causes universal and genuine sorrow. To many of us it brings the sense of a profound personal bereavement.

His early profession as a lawyer was abandoned to enter academic life. In this chosen field he attained the highest rank as an educator, and has left his impress upon the intellectual thought of the country. From the Presidency of Princeton University he was called by his fellow citizens to be the Chief Executive of the State of New Jersey. The duties of this high office he so conducted as to win the confidence of the people of the United States, who twice elected him to the Chief Magistracy of the Republic. As President of the United States he was moved by an earnest desire to promote the best interests of the country as he conceived them. His acts were prompted by high motives and his sincerity of purpose can not be questioned. He led the nation through the terrific struggle of the world war with a lofty idealism which never failed him. He gave utterance to the aspiration of humanity with an eloquence which held the attention of all the earth and made America a new and enlarged influence in the destiny of mankind.

Suitable civil, military, and naval honors directed.

In testimony of the respect in which his memory is held by the Government and people of the United States, I do hereby direct that the flags of the White House and of the several Departmental buildings be displayed at half staff for a period of thirty days, and that suitable military and naval honors under orders of the Secretary of War and of the Secretary of the Navy may be rendered on the day of the funeral.

Done at the City of Washington this third day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and [SEAL.] twenty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America one hundred and forty-eighth.

A PROCLAMATION.

Forest protection and Arbor Day observance, 1924. Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is essential to the continued comfort, welfare, and prosperity of the people of the United States that abundant forests, widely distributed and maintained in a condition of high productiveness, be forever wisely conserved as one of our greatest natural resources; and

WHEREAS, because of our constantly increasing need for wood and other forest products, together with our past failure to provide for reforestation, we are drawing upon our supplies of timber four times as fast as they are renewed through growth; and

WHEREAS, the most formidable agency of forest destruction and prevention of reforestation is fire and, of the fires which annually devastate vast areas, four-fifths are ascribed in origin to human agencies and virtually all may be controlled and made innocuous through prudence, care, and vigilance;

Designation of week of April 21–27, 1924, as Forest Protection Week, etc.

THEREFORE, I, CALVIN COOLIDGE, President of the United States, do urge upon the Governors of the various States to designate and set apart the week of April 21–27, 1924, as Forest Protection Week, and, wherever practicable and not in conflict with State law or accepted customs, to celebrate Arbor Day within that week. I also urge all citizens, either in association or as individuals, all schools, and the press of the land to give common thought to the protection of our forests from fire, to the end that, in the future as in the past, these forests may supply us with wood, protect the purity of our streams, and otherwise serve the people of the United States.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 15th day of Feb., in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-eighth.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Amnesty and pardon. Preamble.

WHEREAS, in and by the Constitution of the United States of America, it is provided that the President "shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment"; and

R. S., sec. 1996, p. 350. Vol. 37, p. 356.

WHEREAS, Sections 1996 and 1998 of the Revised Statutes of the United States as modified by the Act of Congress approved August 22, 1912 (37 Stat. 356), prescribe that all persons thereafter deserting the military or naval service of the United States shall be deemed to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights of citizenship, as well as their right to become citizens, and shall be forever incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under the United States, or of exercising any rights of citizens thereof, but that said provisions "shall not apply to any person hereafter deserting the military or naval service of the United States in time of peace"; and

WHEREAS, an armistice was signed with the Imperial Austro-Hungarian Government on November 3, 1918, and with the Imperial German Government on November 11, 1918, the effect of which was to terminate hostilities; and

Vol. 42, p. 105.

WHEREAS, the war with the aforesaid foreign powers was not formally at an end until July 2, 1921, as declared by a Joint Resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States approved July 2, 1921, and by proclamations of the President of the United States of November 14, 1921, and November 17, 1921; and

Vol. 42, pp. 1939, 1946.

WHEREAS, many persons who deserted from the military or naval service of the United States on or after November 11, 1918, and therefor were duly convicted of desertion committed in time of war, are now leading blameless lives and have reestablished themselves in the confidence of their fellow citizens, and it is believed that further application of the provisions of the Revised Statutes hereinabove set forth to their cases would in most instances be productive of no good results and would be contrary to the spirit of those provisions;

Granting amnesty and pardon as to forfeiture of citizenship, etc., by persons deserting from Army or Navy since armistice of the World War.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, divers other good and sufficient reasons me thereunto moving, do hereby declare and grant amnesty and pardon to all persons who have heretofore been or may hereafter be convicted of desertion from the military or naval service of the United States in time of war, committed during the war hereinbefore mentioned and on or since November 11, 1918, to the extent that there shall be, and hereby are, fully remitted as to such persons any relinquishment or forfeiture of their rights of citizenship as well as their right to become citizens, and any incapacity to hold office of trust or profit under the United States or to exercise any rights of citizens thereof, which forfeitures and disabilities have heretofore been or may hereafter be incurred under the provisions of the sections of the Revised Statutes hereinabove set forth by any such persons in consequence of conviction of desertion committed in time of war as aforesaid.

No other penalties affected.

FURTHERMORE, I do hereby proclaim, declare and make known that nothing contained in this proclamation is intended to remove, or to authorize the removal of, any charge of desertion which may now be standing on the rolls or records of the United States in the case of any person, or as pardoning, remitting or mitigating any penalties to which any person has become, is now, or hereafter may become liable, except as hereinbefore specifically provided.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-eighth.

A PROCLAMATION.

Tariff on Wheat and Wheat Products.
Preamble.
Statutory authorization.
Vol. 42, p. 941.

WHEREAS, in and by Section 315 (a) of Title III of the Act of Congress approved September 21, 1922, entitled "An Act to provide revenue, to regulate commerce with foreign countries, to encourage the industries of the United States, and for other purposes," it is among other things provided that whenever the President, upon investigation of the differences in costs of production of articles wholly or in part the growth or product of the United States and of like or similar articles wholly or in part the growth or product of competing foreign countries, shall find it thereby shown that the duties fixed in this Act do not equalize the said differences in costs of production in the United States and the principal competing country he shall, by such investigation, ascertain said differences and determine and proclaim the changes in classifications or increases or decreases in rates of duty provided in said Act shown by said ascertained differences in such costs of production necessary to equalize the same;

Vol. 42, p. 942.

WHEREAS, in and by Section 315 (c) of said Act it is further provided that in ascertaining the differences in costs of production, under the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) of said section, the President, in so far as he finds it practicable, shall take into consideration (1) the differences in conditions in production, including wages, costs of material, and other items in costs in production of such or similar articles in the United States and in competing foreign countries; (2) the differences in the wholesale selling prices of domestic and foreign articles in the principal markets of the United States; (3) advantages granted to a foreign producer by a foreign government, or by a person, partnership, corporation, or association in a foreign country; and (4) any other advantages or disadvantages in competition;

WHEREAS, under and by virtue of said section of said Act the United States Tariff Commission has made an investigation to assist the President in ascertaining differences in costs of production of, and of all other facts and conditions enumerated in said section with respect to the articles described in paragraphs 729 and 730 of Title I of said Tariff Act of 1922, namely, wheat, wheat flour, semolina, crushed and cracked wheat, and similar wheat products not specially provided for, bran, shorts and by-product feeds obtained in milling wheat, being wholly or in part the growth or product of the United States, and of and with respect to like or similar articles wholly or in part the growth or product of competing foreign countries;

Vol. 42, p. 893.

WHEREAS, in the course of said investigation a hearing was held, of which reasonable public notice was given and at which parties interested were given a reasonable opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard;

AND, WHEREAS, The President upon said investigation of said differences in costs of production of said articles wholly or in part the growth or product of the United States and of like or similar articles wholly or in part the growth or product of competing foreign countries, has thereby found that the principal competing country is the Dominion of Canada and that the duties fixed in said Title and Act do not equalize the differences in costs of production in the United States and in said principal competing country, namely, Canada, and has ascertained and determined the increased and decreased rates of duty, respectively, necessary to equalize the same.

Determining rates to equalize differences in costs of production.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CALVIN COOLIDGE, President of the United States, do hereby determine and proclaim that the increases and decreases in the rates of duty provided in said Act shown by said ascertained differences in said costs of production necessary to equalize the same, are as follows:

Wheat.

An increase in said duty on wheat from 30 cents per bushel of sixty pounds to 42 cents per bushel of sixty pounds;

Wheat flour, etc.

An increase in said duty on wheat flour, semolina, crushed or cracked wheat, and similar wheat products not specially provided for from 78 cents per hundred pounds to $1.04 per hundred pounds;

Wheat feeds.

A decrease in said duty on bran, shorts, and by-product feeds obtained in milling wheat (within the limit of total decrease provided for in said Act) from 15 per centum ad valorem to 7½ per centum ad valorem.

Whereas in and by section 315 (c) of said act it is further provided that in ascertaining the differences in costs of production, under the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) of said section, the President, in so far as he finds it practicable, shall take into consideration (1) the differences in conditions in production, including wages, costs of material, and other items in costs of production of such or similar articles in the United States and in competing foreign countries; (2) the differences in the wholesale selling prices of domestic and foreign articles in the principal markets of the United States; (3) advantages granted to a foreign producer by a foreign government, or by a person, partnership, corporation, or association in a foreign country; and (4) any other advantages or disadvantages in competiton;

National Fire Prevention Day.

Preamble.

Although gratifying efforts are being made to lengthen the lives of our citizens and to conserve our diminishing store of natural resources, the nation's annual loss in life and property due to fire continues to surpass that of any other country. It is reported that 15,000 American lives and property valued at $500,000,000 were lost in fires during 1923. The problem of combating this stupendous waste is of national importance. If it is to be diminished, especial efforts must be made to educate the public mind and conscience to the necessity of improving building construction, increasing protective equipment, and fostering a spirit of national carefulness. To this end

Recommending observance of October 9, 1924, as.

THEREFORE, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, following an established custom, designate Thursday, October 9, the fifty-third anniversary of the great Chicago fire, as National Fire Prevention Day and accordingly recommend and appeal to all citizens that it be observed by them in an appropriate manner. I especially direct the attention of public officials, civic organizations and newspapers to the importance of carrying on impressive activities in our schools, homes and industrial establishments. The preservation of thousands of lives and valuable property is a task worthy of our constant endeavor and wholesome cooperation.

A PROCLAMATION.

Thanksgiving Day, 1924. Preamble.

We approach that season of the year when it has been the custom for the American people to give thanks for the good fortune which the bounty of Providence, through the generosity of nature, has visited upon them. It is altogether a good custom. It has the sanction of antiquity and the approbation of our religious convictions. In acknowledging the receipt of Divine favor, in contemplating the blessings which have been bestowed upon us, we shall reveal the spiritual strength of the nation.

The year has been marked by a continuation of peace whereby our country has entered into a relationship of better understanding with all the other nations of the earth. Ways have been revealed to us by which we could perform very great service through the giving of friendly counsel, through the extension of financial assistance, and through the exercise of a spirit of neighborly kindliness to less favored peoples. We should give thanks for the power which has been given into our keeping, with which we have been able to render these services to the rest of mankind.

At home we have continually had an improving state of the public health. The production of our industries has been large and our harvests have been bountiful. We have been remarkably free from disorder and remarkably successful in all those pursuits which flourish during a state of domestic peace. An abundant prosperity has overspread the land. We shall do well to accept all these favors and bounties with a becoming humility, and dedicate them to the service of the righteous cause of the Giver of all good and perfect gifts. As the nation has prospered let all the people show that they are worthy to prosper by rededicating America to the service of God and man.

Thursday, November 27, 1924, designated as Thanksgiving Day.

THEREFORE, I, CALVIN COOLIDGE, President of the United States of America, hereby proclaim and fix Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November, as a day for National Thanksgiving. I recommend that the people gather in their places of worship, and at the family altars, and offer up their thanks for the goodness which has been shown to them in such a multitude of ways. Especially I urge them to supplicate the Throne of Grace that they may gather strength from their tribulations, that they may gain humility from their victories, that they may bear without complaining the burdens that shall be placed upon them, and that they may be increasingly worthy in all ways of the blessings that shall come to them.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the United States.

A PROCLAMATION

American Education Week. Preamble.

Education for the children of all the people, extending from the primary grades through the university, constitutes America's noblest contribution to civilization. No child or youth in the United States need be deprived of the benefits of education suited to his age and degree of advancement.

Nevertheless, either through negligence or because of unfortunate circumstances which might be controlled with sufficient effort, large numbers of children do not receive the full preparation for their life's work to which they are justly entitled. Many have reached maturity without even the rudiments of education.

This condition demands the solicitude of all patriotic citizens. It involves not only the persons immediately concerned and the communities in which they live, but the Nation itself, for the welfare of the country depends upon the character and the intelligence of those who cast the ballots.

Education has come to be nearer to the hearts of the American people than any other single public interest. The plan of maintaining educational institutions from public funds did not originally prevail in most of the States, and even where it was in use it was but feebly developed in the early days of the Republic. That plan did not arise spontaneously in the minds of all citizens. It was only when the suggestion came forcefully, convincingly, and repeatedly from a few pioneers that popular interest was fully aroused. Vigorous campaigns were required not only to establish the idea of public education, but also for its maintenance, and for its important extensions.

Campaigns of national scope in behalf of education have been conducted annually since 1920, and they have been increasingly effective with each succeeding year. They have concentrated attention upon the needs of education, and the cumulative impetus of mass action has been peculiarly beneficial. It is clearly in the interest of popular education, and consequently of the country, that these campaigns be continued with vigor.

In the last few years we have placed much emphasis on vocational training. It is necessary for men to know the practical side of life and be able to earn a living. We want to have masters of our material resources. But it is also necessary to have a broad and liberal culture that will enable men to think and know how to live after they have earned a living. An educated fool is a sorry spectacle, but he is not nearly so dangerous to society as a rich fool. We want neither in this country. We want the educated to know how to work and the rich to know how to think.

Urging observance of week beginning November 17, as American Education Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States of America, do designate November 17th to 23rd, inclusive, as American Education Week. I urge that the citizens do all they can to advance the interests of education. It is especially recommended that the Governors of the States issue proclamations emphasizing the services rendered by their educational institutions, and calling upon their people to observe the occasion by appropriate action. Further, I urge that all civil officers whose duties relate to education, and all persons connected with the profession of teaching, exert themselves to diffuse information concerning the condition and needs of the schools and to enhance appreciation of the value of education. Patriotic, civic, religious, social, and other organizations could contribute by conducting meetings and demonstrations to promote the desire for knowledge. Ministers of religion and members of the press are asked to exercise the means within their power to increase enthusiasm for educational advancement and to stimulate zeal for enlightened citizenship.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

A PROCLAMATION.

Tariff on Diethylbarbituric Acid, etc. Preamble. Statutory authorization. Vol. 42, p. 941.

Whereas in and by section 315 (a) of Title III of the act of Congress approved September 21, 1922, entitled "An act to provide revenue, to regulate commerce with foreign countries, to encourage the industries of the United States, and for other purposes," it is, among other things, provided that whenever the President, upon investigation of the differences in costs of production of articles wholly or in part the growth or product of the United States and of like or similar articles wholly or in part the growth or product of competing foreign countries, shall find it thereby shown that the duties fixed in this act do not equalize the said differences in costs of production in the United States and the principal competing country he shall, by such investigation, ascertain said differences and determine and proclaim the changes in classifications or increases or decreases in rates of duty provided in said act shown by said ascertained differences in such costs of production necessary to equalize the same;

Vol. 42, p. 942.

Whereas in and by section 315 (c) of said act it is further provided that in ascertaining the differences in costs of production, under the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) of said section, the President, in so far as he finds it practicable, shall take into consideration (1) the differences in conditions in production, including wages, costs of material, and other items in costs of production of such or similar articles in the United States and in competing foreign countries; (2) the differences in the wholesale selling prices of domestic and foreign articles in the principal markets of the United States; (3) advantages granted to a foreign producer by a foreign government, or by a person, partnership, corporation, or association in a foreign country; and (4) any other advantages or disadvantages in competition;

Whereas, under and by virtue of said section of said act, the United States Tariff Commission has made an investigation to assist the President in ascertaining the differences in costs of production of and of all other facts and conditions enumerated in said section with respect to the articles described in paragraphs 1 and 5 of Title I of said tariff act of 1922, namely, diethylbarbituric acid and salts and compounds thereof, being wholly or in part the growth or product of the United States, and of and with respect to like or similar articles wholly or in part the growth or product of competing foreign countries;

Vol. 42, pp. 858, 859.

Whereas in the course of said investigation a hearing was held, of which reasonable public notice was given and at which parties interested were given reasonable opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard;

And whereas the President upon said investigation of said differences in costs of production of said articles wholly or in part the growth or product of the United States and of like or similar articles wholly or in part the growth or product of competing foreign countries, has thereby found—

That the principal competing country is Switzerland;

That the duties fixed in said title and act do not equalize the differences in costs of production in the United States and in said principal competing country, namely, Switzerland;

That the differences in costs of production in the United States and the principal competing country are greater than the amount of the present duty at the rate of 25 per centum ad valorem increased by the total maximum increase authorized under said section, subdivision (a);

And that said differences in costs of production in the United States and the principal competing country can not be equalized by proceeding under the provisions of subdivision (a) of said section and act, that is to say, by increasing the duties to the extent of 50 per centum of the existing ad valorem duties applied to the value of the imported article in the country of exportation.

Increasing duty on diethylbarbituric acid, salts, etc., to equalize differences in cost of production.

Now, therefore, I, CALVIN COOLIDGE, President of the United States of America, do hereby determine and proclaim that the rate of duty shown by said differences in costs of production of diethylbarbituric acid and salts and compounds thereof in the United States and in the principal competing country necessary to equalize such differences, within the limit provided in said section, is the rate of 25 per centum ad valorem based and assessed upon the American selling price as defined in subdivision (f) of section 402 of said act, of similar diethylbarbituric acid and salts and compounds thereof manufactured or produced in the United States and sold under their respective chemical names, or under their respective descriptive names, including barbital and barbital-sodium, not using for the purpose of said basis and assessment such price of such articles when sold under the trademark name Veronal or Veronal-sodium.

Rate on American selling price. Vol. 42, p. 950.

Veronal or veronal-sodium not included.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Whereas in and by section 315 (c) of said act it is further provided that in ascertaining the differences in costs of production, under the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) of said section, the President, in so far as he finds it practicable, shall take into consideration (1) the differences in conditions in production, including wages, costs of material, and other items in costs of production of such or similar articles in the United States and in competing foreign countries; (2) the differences in the wholesale selling prices of domestic and foreign articles in the principal markets of the United States; (3) advantages granted to a foreign producer by a foreign government, or by a person, partnership, corporation, or association in a foreign country; and (4) any other advantages or disadvantages in competition;

A PROCLAMATION.

Forest protection and Arbor Day observation, 1925.
Preamble.

In proclaiming American Forest Week, I desire to bring to the attention of all our people the danger that comes from the neglect of our forests.

For several years the Nation has observed Forest Protection Week. It is fitting that this observance be enlarged. We have too freely spent the rich and magnificent gift that nature bestowed on us. In our eagerness to use that gift we have stripped our forests; we have permitted fires to lay waste and devour them; we have all too often destroyed the young growth and the seed from which new forests might spring. And though we already feel the first grip of timber shortage, we have barely begun to save and restore.

We have passed the pioneer stage and are no longer excusable for continuing this unwise dissipation of a great resource. To the Nation it means the lack of an elemental necessity and the waste of keeping idle or only partly productive nearly one-fourth of our soil.

To our forest-using industries it means unstable investments, the depletion of forest capital, the disbanding of established enterprises, and the decline of one of our most important industrial groups.

Our forests ought to be put to work and kept at work. I do not minimize the obstacles that have to be met, nor the difficulty of changing old ideas and practices. We must all put our hands to this common task. It is not enough that the Federal, State, and local governments take the lead. There must be a change in our national attitude. Our industries, our landowners, our farmers, all our citizens must learn to treat our forests as crops, to be used but also to be renewed. We must learn to tend our woodlands as carefully as we tend our farms.

Let us apply to this creative task the boundless energy and skill we have so long spent in harvesting the free gifts of nature. The forests of the future must be started to-day. Our children are dependent on our course. We are bound by a solemn obligation from which no evasion and no subterfuge will relieve us. Unless we fulfill our sacred responsibility to unborn generations, unless we use with gratitude and with restraint the generous and kindly gifts of Divine Providence, we shall prove ourselves unworthy guardians of a heritage we hold in trust.

Designation of week of April 27–May 3, 1925, as American Forest Week, etc.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CALVIN COOLIDGE, President of the United States, do recommend to the Governors of the various States to designate and set apart the week of April 27–May 3, inclusive, 1925, as American Forest Week, and, wherever practicable and not in conflict with State law or accepted customs, to celebrate Arbor Day within that week. And I urge public officials, public and business associations, industrial leaders, forest owners, editors, educators, and all patriotic citizens to unite in the common task of forest conservation and renewal.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
